CLAIR TAPPAAN LODGE

Clair Tappaan Lodge is a historic, rustic mountain hostel nestled in the woods near Lake Tahoe, California. With accommodations for up to 140 guests, our lodge is the perfect home base for year-round recreation and relaxation in the Sierra Nevada. The friendly, casual atmosphere, proximity to endless outdoor recreation opportunities, and affordable nightly rates make Clair Tappaan the perfect rustic getaway to the Truckee-Tahoe area.

Situated at an elevation of 7,000 feet on historic Donner Summit, the Lodge is a charming spot from which to explore the riches of the Sierra Nevada. The lodge also has great spaces indoors and out for events.

The area receives the highest average snowfall of the entire Sierra Nevada range, making the Lodge a favorite amongst cross-country skiers and snowshoers. Several downhill skiing areas are in the immediate area. When the snow melts in the spring, a whole new world of adventure and exploration is unveiled. A network of nearby trails offers miles of hiking and provides access to fishing streams, remote meadows and peaks, and crystal clear lakes. The well-known Pacific Crest Trail is only a mile away and can be reached right out the back door of the lodge. The Donner Summit area is great for both road and mountain biking and is also widely known as a rock climbers' mecca.

- CAPACITIES
 - Lodge - 140 guests staying at the lodge
 - Large Dining Hall - 81 guests per seating with multiple seating options
 - Lewis and Clark Room: 46 guests
 - Outdoor Space - 170 Guests
- AVAILABILITY & PRICING
 - All spaces open year round with some accommodations for the outdoor space during the winter months.
