

Speaking_Elements

H, C, N, O, F, Cl, Mg, K, Zn, Cu, Ne, He, Ti, S, Au, Ag, P, Al, Fe

1. Interview with two people who have different elements as yours.
2. Present in the class. Share the new information you just learned from your classmates (i.e. the information of a different element)

Interview cards:

Name of the element:
What is the history of your element? Years, people, how it was discovered It was discovered in _____ by _____. He/she found
What are the characteristics of this element? Shape, function, chemical reaction The type of this element is The structure of it is If you, it will In addition to,
Can you give me an example of this element in our daily life usage? It is very common/rare to see this element. For example,
Do you like this element? Why or why not? I like / don't like it. Because Firstly / secondly / Furthermore, ... In my opinion, ... Personally, ...

Name of the element:

What is the history of your element? Years, people, how it was discovered

It was discovered in _____ by _____.
He/she found

What are the characteristics of this element? Shape, function, chemical reaction

The type of this element is

The structure of it is

If you, it will

In addition to,

Can you give me an example of this element in our daily life usage?

It is very common/rare to see this element.

For example,

Do you like this element? Why or why not?

I like / don't like it. Because

Firstly / secondly / Furthermore,...

In my opinion, ...

Personally, ...