

Emelia Kaylee

1. Use three words to describe yourself.

Temperamental, hypocritical, disliked.

2. What is your greatest accomplishment in Runouw history?

Coming up with the 25squared LDCs, I guess. Might be the only accomplishment.

3. What is your favorite thing about your tribe?

Its variety and composition of members. Tsu, Nin and BY can all handle LDing, Ven has brains, and I'm sure brando will have something up his sleeve eventually.

4. What is your greatest real life accomplishment?

I don't know.

5. Who is your favorite music artist?

Tough one. Curtis Schweitzer is there currently for having made the Starbound soundtrack.

6. Who do you think is the tribe's biggest asset and why?

Hard to say. Nin definitely has dedication, as does Tsu, BY has ability, and brando's just too popular to go out before me.

7. Whose name was it the hardest to write down in this game and why?

In the literal sense, it would probably be mine. In the actual sense, I'd say brando's - but I'm half-relieved he hasn't gone out (although I'm hoping he actually does something).

8. If you could choose a Runouw member not from this game to be on your tribe, who would you pick and why?

Suyo. Assuming a hypothetical perfect world where he has free time, of course.

9. What is your favorite color?

Blue. Ultramarine, navy, cyan.

10. What do you think is a winning strategy in Survivor?

Being dedicated and motivated, and pretty much being superior in skill.

11. What was the last movie you watched and what did you think of it?

Wreck-It Ralph, a huge nerd-rush and left me shaking for half an hour after I came out of the cinema.

12. What is the funniest moment in Runouw history?

Can't say that any come to mind.

13. If you play levels, what is your all-time favorite level or series?

N/A

14. Who is your hero in life?

I don't have one in particular. Indie devs, the people who know their way around what a consumer wants, I guess.

15. What is one thing you want to be remembered for in life?

Music. I'd say my own is decent, but it could be a lot, lot better.

16. What career are you pursuing?

Something in IT.

17. Why did you stay on Runouw.com?

It was an inviting community with not too many people, and eventually I just got sucked in.

18. Who on the other tribe scares you as a player and why?

If I had to say someone, it would be Bomberman. He's a little bit too hopped up about this.

19. What has been your lowest point as a Runouw member?

Throwing a huge shitstorm then quitting for two weeks. I'm still liable to do that at this point. I can't really communicate what pisses me off very well.

20. How would it feel to win this game?

Surprising, amusing, perhaps even astonishing.

NanTheDark

1. Use three words to describe yourself.

Dark. Determined. Cooperative.

2. What is your greatest accomplishment in Runouw history?

Marrying MP3, probably. :3 Also getting 2nd place in the Science LDC with the collab I made with Xero.

...who would be here if Oerhaos hadn't kicked him out...

I bet no one in this Tribe voted for him. I bet. 😊

3. What is your favorite thing about your tribe?

We're nice to each other. We cooperate, and have a great Team Spirit. We're like the good guys of this.

4. What is your greatest real life accomplishment?

Making it to 19 years old without ever trying drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, getting any STDs or anything like that... I'm so pure and clean that way xD

For real... I don't know what my greatest RL achievement might be. Sometimes I feel I have never done anything remarkable.

5. Who is your favorite music artist?

I listen to a lot of different bands and artists... and videogame music too. 😊

6. Who do you think is the tribe's biggest asset and why?

I HAVE NO IDEA

...For real. I believe all of us have qualities that can be really useful in various competitions.

7. Whose name was it the hardest to write down in this game and why?

ChaosYoshi. He's the only one I kicked out...

I wasn't here when Mega was gone.

8. If you could choose a Runouw member not from this game to be on your tribe, who would you pick and why?

I don't know really. Maybe AwesomeJRFD, or ~MP3 Amplifier~.

9. What is your favorite color?

Blue.

10. What do you think is a winning strategy in Survivor?

...Apparently, being evil. That's what Oerhaos seems to be going for. >_<

But I don't want to go for it. I don't want to be a treacherous bastard. I believe that it's possible to win this cleanly.

So as for me, I'll just do my best to win the challenges.

11. What was the last movie you watched and what did you think of it?

Kick-Ass 2. It was cool I guess.

12. What is the funniest moment in Runouw history?

I don't remember a lot of Runouw history... but I'm gonna say The Neverending Story. If you were there you'll know what I mean. 😊 Unless you somehow found that annoying. Which some did.

Also, those few times people thought I was a girl. xD

13. If you play levels, what is your all-time favorite level or series?

I don't really play levels. Which is strange, considering I'm a LDer.

14. Who is your hero in life?

...I don't really have a hero in life I think...

15. What is one thing you want to be remembered for in life?

I don't know. Achieving something, being a good person. I just hope that some day I'm gonna do something important.

16. What career are you pursuing?

I'm studying Civil Computer Engineering.

17. Why did you stay on Runouw.com?

I came for LDCs, and stayed for the people. There's some really nice people here.

18. Who on the other tribe scares you as a player and why?

Raz and MK scared me because I kinda feel that they're really good at games. So if we had to actually play something against them, I dunno what would have happened.

Also, Venexis. People say he's really smart. I don't know for sure, but well...

19. What has been your lowest point as a Runouw member?

I don't know.

20. How would it feel to win this game?

Awesome. 😊 I want to win this not only for the money, but also to prove that you can succeed without any need of being a total jerk like a lot of reality show people are.

...At least I hope I can make it to the finals...

Raz

1. Use three words to describe yourself.

Generous, Smug,

2. What is your greatest accomplishment in Runouw history?

Getting 4 medals in one Runouw Votes

3. What is your favorite thing about your tribe?

The members.

4. What is your greatest real life accomplishment?

Getting first in 10 marathons in life.

5. Who is your favorite music artist?

I don't really know, probably Lorde, or Lake (the same people who do the music for adventure time)

6. Who do you think is the tribe's biggest asset and why?

All of us, we all work really well together.

7. Whose name was it the hardest to write down in this game and why?

As in, to vote off? Jslayer, he could have been way more useful if he wasn't so unconfident.

8. If you could choose a Runouw member not from this game to be on your tribe, who would you pick and why?

Foru, Ridder, or Azn are my main choices because they're part of 'that group' that's really close to me on the forum.

9. What is your favorite color?

Green. Duh.

10. What do you think is a winning strategy in Survivor?

Being active but not so active as to become a target, which I already messed up

11. What was the last movie you watched and what did you think of it?

Frozen. It was amazing and is definitely the start of Disney's second renaissance era.

12. What is the funniest moment in Runouw history?

I dunno, really. I'd have to have a list of all the funny moments.

13. If you play levels, what is your all-time favorite level or series?

Don't have one.

14. Who is your hero in life?

Bill Gates, amazing person all around. And Unidan from Reddit.com.

15. What is one thing you want to be remembered for in life?

Discovering a new species of animal has always been my dream, but I'd also like to be known as a professional runner.

16. What career are you pursuing?

Professional Runner.

17. Why did you stay on Runouw.com?

The community, duh.

18. Who on the other tribe scares you as a player and why?

No one really, but magnen seems to have hidden potential.

19. What has been your lowest point as a Runouw member?

All of 2011-2012. Probably more specifically the KY stuff.

20. How would it feel to win this game?

It'd be great but I'm rooting for Ven or BY more, they want to donate to charity. I really want a steam card but I can probably get one more easily than others on the forum so I'd rather donate to charity.

Harmless

1. Use three words to describe yourself.

Strategy, Laid-back, Happy?

2. What is your greatest accomplishment in Runouw history?

I have no clue what you're talking about.

3. What is your favorite thing about your tribe?

We've been down some three people and they didn't even show the slightest notion of giving in. I like that.

4. What is your greatest real life accomplishment?

I have no clue what you're talking about.

5. Who is your favorite music artist?

I have too many to count.

6. Who do you think is the tribe's biggest asset and why?

Magnen, actually. I think all of the tribe is strong, but so far she's clearly made the most contribution and she just came back from what seems to be a really long break before the competition started.

7. Whose name was it the hardest to write down in this game and why?

It wasn't hard to write down any of the names, but that's just me.

8. If you could choose a Runouw member not from this game to be on your tribe, who would you pick and why?

Argh, so many choices. I'd need somebody who would be active though, so I might pick Zunar123 because he's a good friend of mine, but also because he knows how to get along with others and contribute. Also because I think he would be the least busy, but that's only an assumption.

9. What is your favorite color?

Green, actually. Damn Oerhaos for stealing mah color.

10. What do you think is a winning strategy in Survivor?

The more friends you make, the better your chances are in the jury. After that just pull your weight with the tribe and hope not to be the least liked among the tribe.

11. What was the last movie you watched and what did you think of it?

I haven't seen a movie in ages with the exception of seeing Frozen a few weeks ago. Very good movie. I don't care if people say it's for kids, it was still great.

12. What is the funniest moment in Runouw history?

Man, I've seen so many good moments I can't choose. Even so, I have an awful memory, especially when it comes to recalling recent or past events I was in.

13. If you play levels, what is your all-time favorite level or series?

Sympathy of the Devil by MoD- shot

No, I'm serious. I know you may not think highly of it but I thought it was one of the best things I've ever played.

14. Who is your hero in life?

Hard to answer.

15. What is one thing you want to be remembered for in life?

I want to help fix America, including it's coming generation of families and people. I've seen some good people, but I've also seen people who simply don't know what it means to think how your actions affect others. I wish to enlighten them, be it through games with powerful storylines or another method, like presidency.

16. What career are you pursuing?

Video Game ideas, creativity, and music.

17. Why did you stay on Runouw.com?

I appreciate the community and the level designing.

18. Who on the other tribe scares you as a player and why?

BY. He's pretty damn skilled when it comes to level designing and fits one or potentially two roles that the others don't have.

19. What has been your lowest point as a Runouw member?

I'm not sure if you mean lowest point in time or weaknesses in general... if you mean lowest point in time, clearly when I first joined. Don't even get me started on that.

20. How would it feel to win this game?

Good, actually. It'd be nice knowing that I can support my family a little longer.

Venexis

1. Use three words to describe yourself.

Scientific, cool (in the emotional sense, not the synonym for awesome), and why not? Awesome too please.

2. What is your greatest accomplishment in Runouw history?

Runouw history..... well... nobody's hated me? :p That should definitely be an accomplishment, judging by how many rivalries and anti-user groups there have been in our site's history. I guess being that guy nobody has a problem with is something to be proud of.

3. What is your favorite thing about your tribe?

Our tribe is made up almost entirely of people who game together regularly. After a certain point you start to recognize how everyone plays, and how to fill in the gaps left by the different styles. We've become pretty good at working as a team and managing responsibilities among ourselves because of that, even when communication is rather limited.

4. What is your greatest real life accomplishment?

Only a few months ago, I built and launched a rocket nearly 130 kilometers into space. Technically, that's 30 kilometers beyond the Kármán line, the boundary between Earth's atmosphere and space. Might seem pretty silly compared to more typical accomplishments like university or a dream job, but I'd love to hit the moon someday.

5. Who is your favorite music artist?

Damn. If you had asked me that a year ago I wouldn't have an answer. Now I'm partial to a lot of stuff, but still prefer orchestral game soundtracks. Kinda liking Macklemore lately.

6. Who do you think is the tribe's biggest asset and why?

Nin, for so many different reasons. Not only is he amazingly skilled at a load of stuff- art, games, writing, leadership, to name a few- he recognizes that he isn't perfect and takes steps to change those things. Anyone can point out a flaw in a stranger, but it takes a real strong person to point out a flaw in himself, or his team.

7. Whose name was it the hardest to write down in this game and why?

Write down as in vote out? Peter. Yeah, he was the only person we've voted out so far, but he was a great, enthusiastic guy and I'm sad to see him go. Write down as in spell, Magnen. I've butchered her name every single time I go to type it, my brain is hardwired to type Megan instead. :p

8. If you could choose a Runouw member not from this game to be on your tribe, who would you pick and why?

Amp. She probably knows more about the community than just about anyone else, and that would be invaluable as many of the challenges have focused on some aspect of the site.

9. What is your favorite color?

Gonna go with a nice midnight blue.

10. What do you think is a winning strategy in Survivor?

"Trust none, betray some, use all." Do not rely on anyone, they'll eventually turn against you. Strike the first blow, before you're hit. Everyone is important, figure out how and abuse it.

11. What was the last movie you watched and what did you think of it?

Frozen. As a 21 year old male I loved it. 12/10 would sing along.

12. What is the funniest moment in Runouw history?

I remember there was a Skype call probably over two years ago now. We had all somehow started talking about songs, and singing them (terribly). Naturally certain members took it farther than others, and it eventually ended off key and out of sync, several lines forgotten and tears from laughing so hard. RIP my sides, that was a good night.

13. If you play levels, what is your all-time favorite level or series?

Worst_Master's Wiggler Fields, but I can't seem to find the link, sorry. It was the inspiration for a lot of my better levels, as well as kicking off the whole "bloss" thing. Apparently that's my signature now, so it's only right to honor the level that started it all.

14. Who is your hero in life?

Tough one. I'm going to go with Stephen Hawking. Not just because science, but because he is a modern symbol for how far we've come as a race, and of how far we have yet to go. Like a true scientist, he's chill with being wrong- that's how discoveries are made. All that physics-y future stuff makes me tingly inside.

15. What is one thing you want to be remembered for in life?

I'm not particular. If people don't remember anything, I think I'd be pretty okay with that. I still would've done what mattered to me. Being remembered as a cool guy would be sufficient.

16. What career are you pursuing?

Right now, inventing stuff. Was in school for engineering, but honestly, it's more of a hobby than a career for me. Ultimately, I'd like to research, particularly in areas pertaining to space and physics.

17. Why did you stay on Runouw.com?

The community. The forums don't really matter to me anymore, but if the chat disappeared, that would be devastating. The Runouw userbase is as much a part of my life as a job or relationship, perhaps even more so.

18. Who on the other tribe scares you as a player and why?

Magnen. I don't know her all that well, but I'm quite sure Nan is just a figurehead and she's really in control. She clearly understands the risks and benefits of certain actions, and I sincerely look forward to seeing how she handles the game post-merge.

19. What has been your lowest point as a Runouw member?

Shit. February 2012, do I really need to say more?

20. How would it feel to win this game?

I guess that depends how much of a fan following it gets in the meantime, ha. Would be nice, but I think there might be a little bit of hard feelings between the winner and all the other participants, especially as tribe members get more and more invested. That might not be so fun to deal with. Apart from that, as long as I wouldn't be mobbed by adoring fans, I think winning would probably feel pretty spectacular.

Magnen

1. Use three words to describe yourself.

Loyal, stubborn, and friendly.

2. What is your greatest accomplishment in Runouw history?

Non-existent. The only things I really did was attempt a story that I didn't finish, and a few half-baked levels.

3. What is your favorite thing about your tribe?

The fact that we're all supportive of each-other.

4. What is your greatest real life accomplishment?

Well, I'm learning to play piano.

(I have three participation trophies from the "more experienced" evening recitals, but I don't know if that counts : P)

5. Who is your favorite music artist?

I don't really have one... But I do listen to a lot of Skillet and Newboys.
(Those are bands, by the way.)

6. Who do you think is the tribe's biggest asset and why?

I'll say Nan, because he helps everyone keep their heads together.

7. Whose name was it the hardest to write down in this game and why?

Probably Mega. Literally he knew it might happen, and as much as I didn't want to, I had to pick someone.

8. If you could choose a Runouw member not from this game to be on your tribe, who would you pick and why?

MP3, cause' I think she would not only be helpful, but fun to hang around.

9. What is your favorite color?

Purple.

10. What do you think is a winning strategy in Survivor?

Working as hard and as best as you can so you give nobody a reason to kick you out.

11. What was the last movie you watched and what did you think of it?

Lol, what? The last movie I watched was called "Dead Poets Society" (My dad picked it for movie night- not my choice)

I thought it was.. Interesting. Had a bit of truth to it.

12. What is the funniest moment in Runouw history?

Well, seeing as I don't really know much about Runouw history? Harmless getting beat up by the mods here:<http://tinyurl.com/mh3l2sf>
Just keep reading til' page 208.

13. If you play levels, what is your all-time favorite level or series?

Urk, I don't really play levels, so I don't know.

14. Who is your hero in life?

I'm a Christian, so my Lord and my God.

15. What is one thing you want to be remembered for in life?

Being a novel writer and having fantastic stories.

16. What career are you pursuing?

Well, I'm learning piano, but I want to be a novel writer.

17. Why did you stay on Runouw.com?

I have a weird history with this site. I joined in 2011, lost interest after awhile, and came back when I heard about this competition. I'm still working out what to do on the site when this is over.

18. Who on the other tribe scares you as a player and why?

Raz. I'm not sure, but I've just got a bad feeling about the guy.
(I also joked to myself that we're rivals cause' we're both the first picks. But that's irrelevant.)

19. What has been your lowest point as a Runouw member?

I have no high point, all I have are low points, pretty much.

20. How would it feel to win this game?

Absolutely amazing. I want to make some kind of name for myself on Runouw, so I'm hoping the competition is a good way to achieve that.

Nin10mode

1. Use three words to describe yourself.

Smart. Creative. Proudful. You probably know that pride of mine the most.

2. What is your greatest accomplishment in Runouw history?

Becoming a Level Moderator. I would have said Moderator, but I've done things before I became one that I might not have been able to without just a little bit of credibility.

3. What is your favorite thing about your tribe?

The fact that we are all close friends, with the exception of peter, which was probably why he got voted out.

4. What is your greatest real life accomplishment?

I haven't really accomplished much in the real. Never tried to join any groups and lead them, still not in the top 10% of my class, haven't had a job our made any significant difference. I like to believe my first real life accomplishment will be my greatest one; what accomplishment that is is somewhere further down.

5. Who is your favorite music artist?

That's a tough one. I like music as an art to convey ideas and emotion, thus, i, being the neutral guy that I am, don't really have a favorite artist. No favorite genre either. I wouldn't consider jpop a genre, unless there's such a thing as jrap, jcountry, jclassical, etc. Heh.

6. Who do you think is the tribe's biggest asset and why?

Raz. He has the most contact with me, so I know the scope of his participation. It's a pain and simple fact that no-one, probably not even I, has contributed more than him.

7. Whose name was it the hardest to write down in this game and why?

The only Tribal Council out tribe has held was the one I was exiled from, so I have the privilege of not dealing with that.

8. If you could choose a Runouw member not from this game to be on your tribe, who would you pick and why?

Probably Star king. He's very much like me, albeit a bit less mature. I like quality, and I like being the most mature in a group.

9. What is your favorite color?

Red. The color of hunger. Of heat. Of passion. Of luck.

10. What do you think is a winning strategy in Survivor?

Surrounding yourself with people that trust you, obviously.

11. What was the last movie you watched and what did you think of it?

I don't watch many movies. The few that I do see usually for English classes, and a few months ago we watched the older version of Gatsby. I can't say I was particularly impressed.

12. What is the funniest moment in Runouw history?

I liked the days when we veterans partook in some of the older, more original forum games. I look back at some of the posts we all made in the Caption Contest and games like that, and I still laugh.

13. If you play levels, what is your all-time favorite level or series?

I remember loving 24murph's level series. My library of levels to choose from is pretty sparse.

14. Who is your hero in life?

I don't look up to anyone. Heroes save people from despair, even in small ways. I have no despair to be saved from. Nor do I have a role model, someone from which my dream is based on. My dream sprouted here, its exact origin being a silly idea Avo had.

15. What is one thing you want to be remembered for in life?

I want to challenge the social problems this world is through story. More specifically in the form of animated media.

16. What career are you pursuing?

Animator, executive producer of an animation studio. Preferably of my own creation.

17. Why did you stay on Runouw.com?

This site has the potential to become something big. I want to be a part of that, with all the friends I've made here thus far.

18. Who on the other tribe scares you as a player and why?

Bombberman and his clear antagonism towards us was shocking. I'm hopeful that out was in the name of replay and competitive spirit.

19. What has been your lowest point as a Runouw member?

I've mentioned this in a rather personal thread of mine, but I can't recall a time when anyone targeted me. The lowest point would probably be the day I joined and the weeks before I attempted to socialize.

20. How would it feel to win this game?

Happy. I've yet to win anything, even on-site, besides RV medals where, really, I was the only competitor.
