National Centre for Computing Education

Raspberry Pi

Peer feedback

Leave this document on your computer for a classmate to fill in and suggest areas that you might consider improving. When you read the comments, you will have an opportunity to agree or disagree with the comments and describe why.

Name of reviewer:

1. Highlight the areas that apply to the work that you are reviewing.

	Emerging [1]	Expected [2]	Exceeding [3]
Audience	• Some evidence of thought for the audience	• Has appropriately identified the audience and there is some evidence that content is tailored for the audience	• Has identified the audience and it is clear that the content is fully appropriate for the audience
Sources	• Has used at least one source to support argument, but it is not fully or appropriately referenced and there is no indication of credibility	• Has used two or more sources of information, which are referenced appropriately, and it can be proven that some information came from credible sources	• Has used a range of sources to support their argument, and all sources are fit for purpose and referenced appropriately, and their credibility has been justified
Formatting	• Blog has a number of formatting errors still left to	• Blog has been formatted appropriately with few improvements needed	• Blog has been formatted appropriately with no

	correct • Some additional features have been added to the document, but not always appropriately	• Has appropriately included most of the following features: bullet points, alignment, font style and size, titles, colour	improvements needed • Has appropriately included a range of the following features: bullet points, alignment, font style and size, titles, colour • Has also independently investigated other features to utilise
Images	• Images have been added, but they are not fit for purpose • Other than resizing, no image editing has taken place • Not all images are attributed to the author	• Images are mostly suitable for the blog • At least one image has been edited (cropped/text wrapped, recoloured) appropriately to fit with the text • All images are attributed to the author	• Images are all suitable for the blog • Where appropriate, the images have been edited (cropped/text wrapped, recoloured) to fit with the text • All images are attributed to the author

2. Write down one thing that you like about their work.

One thing that you like about their work

3. Use the table below to add feedback for improvement. Remember, when giving feedback, you must use supportive comments (avoid anything negative).

Suggestions for improvement (minimum of 1, maximum of 3)	Agree? (If you agree, you are expected to then make the recommended improvement to your blog.)	Disagree? (If you disagree, please justify why in this box.)

This resource is licensed under the Open Government Licence, version 3. For more information on this licence, see ncce.io/ogl.