Designation Descriptions:

CES – Certified Estate and Trust Specialist:

This graduate-level designation is conferred by the Institute of Business & Finance (IBF) upon candidates who complete an educational program focusing on trusts, wills, probate, retirement benefits, caring for children, and what should be done after the death of a loved one.

The CES™ certification requires mastery of different types of trusts, ownership rules, disinheritance, probate, pay-on-death accounts, insurance, spousal restrictions, special needs, conservatorships, and managing assets.

The student must pass three comprehensive exams and a written case study as well as adhere to the IBF Code of Ethics and IBF Standards of Practice as well as fulfill annual continuing education requirements. The CES™ program is designed for brokers and advisors who have clients in their 60s or older, as well as those who may be providing care to an aging relative.
