MINISTRY PHILOSOPHY

My ministry philosophy is grounded in Christ's call to love one another. I strive to be his hands and feet, cultivating hope, care, and compassion for his people. My faith journey is one of service—rooted in love, truth, and grace—trusting that every outcome is in his hands and for his glory. I seek to create a safe space for healing and growth, always guided by God's timing and purpose.

PERSONAL SUMMARY

I grew up in Fort Worth and earned a BBA from the University of North Texas in 1986. After 25 years in business, God made it clear in 2010 that it was time for a life change, calling me into full-time ministry. In obedience, I sold my business and began Seminary at Dallas Theological Seminary, earning a Master of Theology in 2013. Shortly before graduation, the Lord led me to Christ Chapel Bible Church, where I served as an Associate Pastor for five years, growing in leadership and deepening my passion for ministry.

Seeking a more personal connection with God's people, I transitioned to pastoring a small church in Graford, TX, where I spent four deeply fulfilling years at Community Church of Possum Kingdom. After sensing God's prompting, I reflected upon my next steps in ministry. This journey has strengthened my faith and deepened my commitment to serving others with a heart fully surrendered to God's love and purpose.
