

Suzuki Violin Practice

* B i n g o *

|                                                       |                                                                                        |                                                        |                                                                       |                                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Two practice sessions in one day                      | Perform for someone via FaceTime or other platform                                     | Listen to your Suzuki recording for one hour in a day  | Make 50 beautiful bow holds (can take multiple practices)             | Practice 6 days in one week                          |
| Finish your practicing before lunch                   | One whole practice with no complaints                                           | Play a piece in five rooms of your house               | Send your teacher a picture of your practice                          | Find information about a favorite composer and share |
| Do five bow exercises 10 times each                   | Listen to a viola, cello or bass recording                                             | FREE                                            | Put on a concert for your stuffed animals or toys                     | Do a practice spot 20 times in one day               |
| Make a video of you performing to share with a friend | Listen to a recording of the Bach Double violin concerto for Two Violins (Book 4 or 5) | Play a piece with an upside down bow hold              | Listen to a Suzuki recording that is not in Book 1                    | Practice in your pajamas                             |
| Perform a concert for your family                     | Make up new words for the Twinkle Variations and share with your teacher               | Listen to the recording of your newest piece 25 times! | Play three pieces with your eyes closed or while standing on one foot | Make a list of three pieces you are excited to learn |