

Final Report Form

As soon as possible after you've completed your Teaching Square's debrief (and before the end of the current semester), each member should complete this form and send it to Nancy Chick at nchick@twu.edu. (The box after each question will expand as you type in it.) Your responses will help us assess the effectiveness of teaching squares at TWU.

Names of Colleagues in Your Square

1. What did you notice and appreciate in your colleagues' teaching (e.g., specific strategies, approaches, ways of connecting with students)?

2. What did you learn about your own teaching from these visits (e.g., affirmations, new perspectives, areas for growth)?

3. What ideas, practices, or questions are you taking away from this experience (e.g., something you'd like to try, think about, or adapt for your own teaching)?

4. How did the debrief conversation enrich your learning from the class visits (e.g., insights that emerged only through dialogue)?

5. Optional: In what ways did participating in a teaching square impact your sense of connection with colleagues (e.g., discovering common challenges, finding collaborators)?

Do you give The Faculty Commons permission to share—anonously—excerpts from your comments above to help us recruit more teaching squares? Yes / No
