

Bachelor of Project Management - Minor in Faith-Based Organizational Leadership

HBI University

Course Duration: 3 years

Credit Hours: 135 (including minor)

Program Description

The Bachelor of Project Management at HBI University prepares students for leadership roles in managing projects across industries, including business, nonprofit, and faith-based organizations. This program equips students with the skills necessary to plan, execute, and oversee complex projects, ensuring efficiency, effectiveness, and strategic impact.

Students will gain expertise in risk management, budgeting, stakeholder communication, and agile methodologies. The curriculum integrates practical applications with theoretical knowledge, preparing graduates for project leadership positions in corporate, government, and faith-based sectors.

The Minor in Faith-Based Organizational Leadership provides students with foundational knowledge in leading religious and nonprofit organizations. This minor focuses on ethical leadership, faith-driven strategic planning, and the integration of biblical principles into organizational management. Graduates will be equipped to lead churches, ministries, and faith-based businesses with strong leadership and administrative skills.
