

DAILY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Monday, March 9

Decade Dayz starts tomorrow! On Tuesday, dress in styles from the 70's, on Wednesday, dress in styles from the 80's, and on Thursday dress in styles from the 90's. Tomorrow, come to the pavilion at lunch to decorate pet rocks, hula hoop and more! If you win the raffle at the photo booth, you could win a lava lamp! Go to tinyurl.com/DecadeDay2020 for more information.

The annual CUSD middle school art contest has begun and will continue through April 3rd! This year's theme is 'Through the Looking Glass'. Any interested students can pick up an information and submission form in Room 1 or the front office. If you have any questions, please see Mrs. Hickey in Room 1. Good luck!

Leadership just wanted to thank you for pitching in and donating to the Australia Fire Fundraiser! We raised a total of $920.31, and every penny counts! All the money that was donated will go towards helping the families and animals suffering from the fires. Once again, thank you for all of your help!

Yearbooks continue to sell online until April 25 for the final price of $58. You can also bring cash or check written out to Kennedy Middle School for $58 to Room 1 and your yearbook order can be placed. As the school year narrows down, sales move more quickly. Once we are sold out we CANNOT order more books. Please don't miss out!

Attention all 1ST TRIMESTER art students. They are here! Your art swap gifts have finally arrived! Please stop by Room 1 to pick up your art swap artwork from our partnering middle school in Kansas. It was so much fun participating in this event and I look forward to it again in the future!

Students, please check the lost in found in your teachers' classrooms, the PE locker room, and in front of the office. The lost and founds will all be getting cleared out on Thursday, March 12, so Wednesday, March 11 will be the last day to collect your items. Find your belongings before they are gone for good

Monday clubs today at lunch: ACSL/Room L, Drawing/Room i, Literature Club/Room 15, Bollywood Dance/Room 14

No clubs today after school
