Happy Cloud Pretty Cure (Happyクラウド・プレキュア lit. Happy Cloud Pretty Cure) is the first installment in the Pretty Cure fan project.

Directed by Cure Rin and produced by the fans, the series premieres February (TBA) on the LinetteFox channel.

The series' main motif is weather and clouds, while the theme is about change and how we deal with it.

Production

Back in October 2025 a rumor was going around about a Pastel Weather Pretty Cure, which was debunked when Kimi to Idol Pretty Cure was announced come November. It had been two years since my last successful fanseries Eternal Pretty Cure 5 and I was reading behind the scenes stuff about the franchise. So I created a doc similar format to Precure wiki pages detailing a Bloomin' Weather Pretty Cure. In search of a daydream I've been developing it with intentions of following about the same schedule as canon. But a 50 episode show, two movies, 13 manga chapters, four stage shows is a lot for one person. I read even more about the creation of Precure, and have determined if I'm to succeed in my goals I'll need a team! So off to create an outline and find volunteers I go.

I'll still be doing most of the work but I would like a handful of extra writers for things. Payment is deferred, meaning if the YouTube/Spotify adaptations start making money without Toei killing us I will split it evenly amongst the team. It's not guaranteed... It's also that I'd like to uplift the Precure fan writers, there's been plenty of art collabs so this is like that. It's kinda wish fulfillment as well, giving us a chance to see what it could be like to run a show for a year. Once co-writers are chosen I'll assign y'all each a handful of episodes to write. You can use the information on this document to help, but don't be afraid to take liberties with your work. If this goes well, maybe we can do it again for other people's fan serieses.

Happy Cloud Pretty Cure will release the logo at the end of November (TBA). Simultaneously the StrawPage and Twitter accounts will launch. I'll update the StrawPage with more info in early January (TBA). Then the episodes will start releasing at 8:30 AM (EST) every Sunday until we run out. The movie will come in September (TBA), featuring a crossover between Fresh and Smile. Stage shows will be in script format, we'll need one with and without the midseason, simple stuff like what they have at malls and theme parks. There also may be a Dream Stage that's longer and guest starring the leads of the two seasons that ended closest to Happy Cloud's release. We'll need a Kanashasai for February after all projects are public.

Once the first episode is released on Ao3, Wattpad, Quotev, etc we can start casting for the audio dramas. These will get actors to voice the episodes, movies and stage shows for our YouTube channel and possibly Spotify for Podcasts. The audio dramas will be released weekly the following year.

Synopsis

Hidaka Emi is a prideful girl who has lived her entire life in Kanako Town.
One day she bumps into Kumoni, a fairy sent to retrieve the leprechaun's treasure which was scattered to keep it from the two kingdoms.
To protect the legendary power from falling into scheming hands the Cloud Precure rises like the sun.

Items

- Cloud Purse: The transformation item. A cloud shaped coin purse with a keychain clip and slot and three buttons on the front. To activate, insert a specific Weather Token and press each button in order. For powered up attacks insert a Forecast Token mid battle.
- Forecast Token: The 6 coins used by Precure to transform.
- Weather Coin: Little coins used by fairies to control the weather. They are scattered across the town for Precure to uncover and collect.

- Rainbow Pot: The pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, stores collect Weather Coins. Aka a gacha machine that advances their powers every 5 coins.
- Promise Bank: The transformation item for Cure Promise. A heart shaped bank, insert a Weather Token through the top and rotate the switch to activate. Same as the purses, a Forecast Token can be used to upgrade powers.

Characters

Pretty Cure

- Hidaka Emi (日高えみ): An energetic first year who takes great pride in her hometown. She's passionate and loves beautiful sunny days, sometimes ignoring the importance of other weather in the process. Her power is heating the environment around her. Her catchphrase is "It's my sunny day!" (イッツマイサニーデー). Emi transforms into Cure Shine (キュアシャイン).
- Shimizu Mira (清水みら): An upperclassman and swim team ace. She's the rare person who likes rainy days, enjoying the beauty while others escape the downpour. While her big brother travels as a famous model, she remains uncertain of her future. She's elegant and ladylike, but sometimes people don't respect her importance. She can use water for fortune telling. Mira transforms into Cure Drop (キュアドロップ).
- Hayaka Go (早化ご): The middle child with five siblings and an upperclassman. She's fast-paced and lively but just as quick to startle. She's in too many clubs to count and knows absolutely everyone in school. Her father runs an animal shelter, and sometimes it feels like those animals know her more than her many human friends. She finds thunderstorms to be exciting. She can teleport as her power. Go transforms into Cure Bolt (キュアボルト, Cure Bolt).
- Nagayasu Kazuki (永安かずき): The daughter of a traveling doctor. A bit of a tomboy who loves sports. Lives with her father, meaning this is the 10th school she's transferred to in under a decade. A bit reserved as she's afraid to make connections due to constantly leaving people. She relates to the wind as it's always passing through but never stopping. Her power is turning invisible. Kazuki transforms into Cure Whistle (キュアウィッサル).
- Shimoda Shirai (下田しらい): A bubbly first year. She loves to write stories and share her imagination. Whenever there's snow, she will be playing in it all day long. Sometimes she gets derailed too easily. Her power materializes snow sculptures of whatever she imagines. She has a cute habit of saying "~Suno" (スノ) at the end of her sentences or "Fura" (フラ) when startled, and she loves puns. Shirai transforms into Cure Flake (キュアフレーク).
- Fiona (フィオナ): Full name is Fiona Cloudest Princess of the Rainbow Heavens. An 18-year-old leprechaun who committed treason against the kingdoms to protect the Legendary Treasure. She stayed as the lone guardian until she was taken into custody, with only enough time to send Kumoni away for help. Fiona transforms into Cure Promise (キュアプロミス).

Mascots

- Kumoni (クモニ): A fairy with the power to change the weather. They are a friendly but nervous child who came from a far-off land to retrieve the leprechaun's treasure and protect its power from evil. They add "~moni" (モニ, moni) to the end of their sentences.
- Ameo (アメオ): Another fairy and Kumoni's big brother. He is serious and to the point but still can be goofy sometimes. He disguises himself as a human and travels the world searching for the treasure in places Precure cannot reach. He adds "~meo" (メオ, meo) to his sentences.

Dubh Kingdom

- White King (ワイトキング)
- Sir Freeze (サーフリーズ)
- Sir Dry (サードライ)
- Charioteer Petro (チャリアティアペトロー)

Hidaka Emi (日高えみ) is one of the six main Cures in Happy Cloud Pretty Cure. She is the Precure of the Sun. She's themed after the sun and she's a first-year at Kanako Public High School.

Emi transforms into Cure Shine (キュアシャイン). Her catchphrase is "It's my Sunny Day!" (イッツマイサニーデー!).

Bio

Appearance

Emi has lola magenta round eyes, hidden in her pupils are tiny faded sun symbols. Her skin is tanned and she has knee length baby pink hair. Typically she has this hair tied up so it only reaches the base of her neck, in fact at that base it splits in the middle. The hairclip is white and starshaped. On an ordinary day she wears an almost white pink sweatshirt, and a plaid skirt. Beneath the skirt are dark gray leggings that dig into her sky blue boots. On either side of the fluffy boots are lines of ribbons leading up them.

As Cure Shine the sun symbols usurp the rest of the pupil. Her hair is let down to curve upwards at the end, making a half circle in its strawberry lemonade color. She wears a sleeveless hot pink crop top, and matching skirt with fluffy cloud-like fluff beneath. Around her waist is a white hoodie used almost like a cape for the skirt. Her heels are white sandals, with netting going up to her knees, matching net going from her wrists to her elbows. Then atop her crown are placed dark gray sunglasses.

Personality

Emi is the embodiment of the sun, as such she's energetic as she is confident. So confident in fact, it's as if the world revolves around her! This is both a perk and a problem, some might find her boundless ego blinding. This doesn't mean she lacks compassion, she's the type to crash through thick and thin for those she enjoys the company of. She's just very wary about change as it threatens her perfect little world. She has a tendency to shut down from the slightest derailment in a day, but overall keeps a positive face. She can be a bit impulsive, deciding what's most important on a dime. She enjoys shoujo manga and idols. She might not know what she wants in life, but she's young and able to grow isn't she?

She’s lived in Kanako Town her entire life thus has its layout memorized.

Etymology

Hidaka (日高): Hi (日) means “Sun” or “Daytime” which echoes her role as Precure of the Sun, Daka (高) means “Excellent” or “Famous” which refers to her soon-to-be dream of becoming an idol. Put together Hidaka (日高) means “high sun”.

Emi (えみ): Emi most commonly means “Blessing” or “Beauty”.

Epilogue

Cure Shine

Part the clouds for my grand debut, Cure Shine!

Cure Shine is Emi's Pretty Cure alias. She transforms using the Cloud Purse and pink Forecast Token. Her power is to heat things up.

In combat Cure Shine often uses dance moves, exhibiting her dream of becoming an idol. Instead of backflips and cartwheels, she should box step or twirl. When a monster appears her first move is to charge in by herself. Her specialty is her punching. She can jump 50 feet high, is the third fastest of her team, and the second strongest.

Transformation

“Precure...” Her voice echoes, the fairy being dropped as she opens her arms. The purse flies over her head as she announces. “Sudden Forecast: Sunny.” With that, the purse opens, spitting a white hoodie over her former outfit. Enveloping her in a pink light, a hot pink crop top appears as the hoodie opens, beneath a matching skirt with white trim pointing down to the cloud-like fluff poking out. She steps to the left for a white sandal to appear, spins as webbing sews up her leg. She steps to the right and an identical shoe and lace spiral up. Then she claps for white fingerless gloves to appear, pink ribbons taking the wrists. She takes off the hoodie and ties it around her waist like a cape to her skirt, then pinches her thumb and pointer into goggles, placing pink sunglasses on her head for a tiara. Her hair grows out from the baby pink into a long pink lemonade colored ponytail, spreading at the end into a half circle pointing to the ground. The look is topped off by a sun-shaped earring dangling on the right, and the purse clipped to the sleeve of the hoodie. The pink lights diminish, then a spotlight clicks on. “The clouds part for my grand debut.” She walks forward, then winks with one foot looped in front of the other. Then raises her hands into the air, making herself big. “Cure Shine!” Her pupils constrict, being replaced by suns.

Attacks

- Crowning Fire: Cure Shine’s solo attack.
