

Hi Louis

I really admire your strategy of fasting until lunchtime and only having coffee and green tea. It's such an interesting approach, and I'm definitely going to give it a try myself.

I've been following your content and I must say, the way you inspire and motivate your followers to become better versions of themselves is absolutely amazing.

While exploring your Instagram page, I couldn't help but notice that there are a few ingredients missing that could potentially boost your application rate and attract more clients.

I did some research and analyzed your business, I came up with a plan and strategy.

I believe incorporating these elements will help you reach an even wider audience and connect with individuals who are seeking the kind of holistic transformation you offer.

to have an idea I did an opt-in page for you absolutely free of charge. please check it out here

I'd be more than happy to share some insights and suggestions on how you can further optimize your online training business and maximize your impact and attract more clients.

if you're interested in hearing my ideas let's hop on a Zoom call. Are you free this Monday or Thursday?

best regards,
Toufik / Marketing Consultant

Hi Robie

first of all, I want to congratulate you on converting to Islam recently, as a Muslim myself I welcome you brother, and may Allah bless you and your mother.

I recently came across your Instagram page and I'm impressed by the results of your clients it's really inspiring as also the tips and tricks on how to lose weight you provide to your followers.

However, after conducting a thorough analysis of your website and your online fitness business, I believe there's an opportunity to further maximize your application rate and close more clients.

I notice you're not doing any funnel or email follow-up sequences and landing pages to capture contacts of potential clients I even subscribed to your newsletter on your website a few days ago and nothing has been sent.

so I went ahead and wrote an email authentic to your voice as an example of newsletter email sequences.

it's absolutely free of charge
