

Privacy Policy

TOV SITEP makes the mobile application Sound Match available free of charge and provides it in its current state (“as is”). This Privacy Policy describes how data may be collected, used, and protected when you download, install, or use the application. By accessing or using Sound Match, you acknowledge that you have read and accepted the terms outlined in this Policy.

All data collected through the application is used solely for the purpose of operating, maintaining, enhancing, and supporting the Service. We do not sell, rent, or disclose your personal information to third parties, except as described in this Policy. Any terms not specifically defined herein shall carry the same meaning as in the Terms and Conditions available within the Sound Match application.

Information Collection and Use

To ensure the proper operation of the application and to improve user experience, Sound Match may request certain personally identifiable information. This information is stored securely and processed in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

The application may also rely on third-party services that independently collect and process data. Such services may include, but are not limited to:

- Google Play Services

Log Data

In the event of an application error, certain technical information may be automatically collected through third-party tools. This may include details such as your IP address, device model, operating system version, app configuration, time and date of use, and other diagnostic data.

This information is used exclusively for troubleshooting, performance improvement, and maintaining the reliability of the Service.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

Sound Match does not directly use cookies. However, some integrated third-party components may utilize cookies or similar technologies for analytics or functional purposes.

You have the option to control or disable cookies through your device or browser settings. Please note that doing so may impact certain features or reduce the performance of the application.

Third-Party Service Providers

We may engage third-party companies or individuals to assist in providing and maintaining the Service. These third parties may:

- Support the operation of the application
- Perform services on our behalf
- Provide technical support
- Analyze usage and monitor performance

They are granted access only to the information necessary to carry out their responsibilities and are obligated to keep such information confidential. They are prohibited from using this data for any other purposes.

Data Security

We apply appropriate technical and organizational safeguards to protect your personal data from unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure, or misuse. However, it is important to understand that no method of data transmission over the internet or electronic storage is entirely secure.

Links to External Resources

The application may contain links to external websites or services. If you choose to access such resources, you do so at your own risk. We are not responsible for the content, policies, or practices of any third-party sites or services. We recommend reviewing their privacy policies before sharing any personal information.

Children's Privacy

Sound Match is not intended for use by individuals under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal data from children. If such data is identified, it will be promptly removed. If you are a parent or guardian and believe that your child has provided personal information, please contact us.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to update this Privacy Policy periodically. Any changes will be posted on this page. Continued use of the application after such updates constitutes acceptance of the revised Policy. All updates take effect immediately upon publication.

Effective Date: April 26, 2026
