

Hello

My name is Mark Bowman and you can call me Mr Mark or Mr Bowman...whichever you are most comfortable :) I am married and have a 16 yo son (homeschooled), 20yo daughter at Liberty University and special needs adult son.

I am a real person, promise :)...I am originally from Buffalo, NY but I currently have 2 homes in both Fort Myers Florida and Raleigh North Carolina and a cabin in Townsend, TN....from where I will be instructing you.

Background

My Grad Degree/Masters degree in Instructional technology/curriculum design from Florida Gulf Coast University, as well as several classes toward my Masters of History at the University of Memphis. My undergrad/ bachelors degree is in Social Studies/ secondary education from Buffalo State University,

I taught public High school for 6 years out of college and then joined the Army and served in Iraq after 911. I returned and entered a law enforcement degree Serving in the special operations unit including the SWAT team in Florida, of which I am now retired. Since then I've taught in person at both public and private schools at multiple levels and also remotely taught through virtual platforms while designing curriculum and those platform.s
