Directions: Fill-in the prompts below with writing that matches exhibition studio photos and titles loaded in your digital portfolio folders. In your digital portfolio folder, rename the photographs of each work to read the number of the artwork and the title: "#_ Title." For each number below, highlight the text written and select "Tools" > "Word Count" to check for number of words and/or characters used per section.

#1) Exhibition Work #1: (10 points)
Title:
Medium:
Size (cm):
500 character description:
5 points for a quality photo in your digital portfolio folder with correct a name including this number and title.*

#2) Exhibition Work #2: (10 points)
Title:
Medium:
Size (cm):
500 character description:
5 points for a quality photo in your digital portfolio folder with correct a name including this number and title.*

#3) Exhibition Work #3: (10 points)
Title:
Medium:
Size (cm):
500 character description:
5 points for a quality photo in your digital portfolio folder with correct a name including this number and title.*

#4) Exhibition Work #4: (10 points)
Title:
Medium:
Size (cm):
500 character description:
5 points for a quality photo in your digital portfolio folder with correct a name including this number and title.*

#5) Exhibition Work #5: (10 points)
Title:
Medium:
Size (cm):
500 character description:
5 points for a quality photo in your digital portfolio folder with correct a name including this number and title.*

#6) Exhibition Work #6: (10 points)
Title:
Medium:
Size (cm):
500 character description:
5 points for a quality photo in your digital portfolio folder with correct a name including this number and title.*

#7) Curatorial Rationale: (10 points) Type 500-700 words below as a practice curatorial rationale. Assume you have already hung your exhibtion in an ideal manner for your current collection. If you are assured of future works you will produce you can include writing about those as well. Check the exhibition rubric when completed to ensure you have covered all required criteria.