

Is it true worlds created by your mind are based off of things that happened to that person's life?

Nah. I don't think so.

Uncool stuff:

- Death
- Suicide
- Drug/Substance abuse (MAJOR)
- S/A (mentioned but not shown)
- SH
- Classism
- Racism (NOT BY SKIN TONE JUST TO BE CLEAR.)
- Cannibalism

 Character Sheet

I'll work on that later WHOOPS WHYBIS THE LETTERS HUGE

Vial/Luminary Flower :

The vial was made and believed to contain absolute power from a plant which was soon called Luminary Flower. The original holder was from Dusk's grandmother, Hellaine and Reni.

They began experimenting on the plant. The original reason for doing so was to help cure the illness that's been going around (potentially also making the human race stronger) and create a real god to protect Earth. They used rats and the rats would become supernatural or more deformed. After the eruption of the emission and gases, some people became supernatural. The flower was then made into liquid substances and turned into vaccines. That's how some people gained abilities and powers. They stopped using it ever since they realized what happened to half the population.

Hellaine then tried to experiment on Vian but it was half success (left him to be preserved) and tried to experiment on Reni but she was unsuccessful as Reni died from overdose. Later on, Hellaine died of old age but before she could her last two human experiments were her grandchildren which was a success and they became immortal.

Hellaine's place was lit on fire so all evidence was gone. Dusk brings back the barrels of the liquid Luminary and uses it to advance their technology (successful). Lots of years later, Szilvie finds one of the few flowers that were actually kept preserved in a small glass. It was used to experiment (Project R.A.T) and then after Szilvie's death it was passed to Dusk.

Inhaling the smell of the luminary can mess up some senses but it won't make you change like before unless you stay in the area for a long period of time then you'll have some mutations (kinda like Chernobyl). Still, inhaling and touching things that were in the area of explosion is contaminated and should not be near without protection. Luminary is very useful but very deadly.

Levels of Deformities :

L1

Emission:

- Barely any changes
- Mostly look and act like a human being

Drug:

- Difference in emotion
- More happier
- More productive

L2

Emission:

- Visible changes in human body

Drug:

- Weird feeling inside
- Wanting more
- The feeling of "happiness" wears out more often

L3

Emission:

- Visible changes and markings on the body

Drug:

- Has small bumps on the skin
- Small hallucinations

L4

Emission:

- Some either nonverbal or some can communicate
- Big changes in appearance
- More creature-like

Drug:

- Psychosis/hallucinations
- Vein shown
- More bumps and some grew bigger than others

L5

Emission:

- Considered "nonhuman"
- Human attributes are either not shown or barely shown
- Does not have a mind of its own anymore
- More like creatures
- ATTACKS ANYONE.

Drug:

- Considered "nonhuman"
- Bumps all sizes EVERYWHERE
- Veins shown and pale skin
- Zombie like
- Needs to be locked up

EZEREK EFFECTS:

GOOD:

- Powers all technology
- Legal.
- Can treat/fight off diseases
- helps with immunity system

BAD:

- Too much power can cause explosions/outages
- If not stabilized right, it will hurt and cause more pain for the person instead of helping
- Injecting bad Luminary can decrease their immunity and health

Ex.

This is so bad I don't know how to draw 😭😭😭

DRUG EFFECTS:

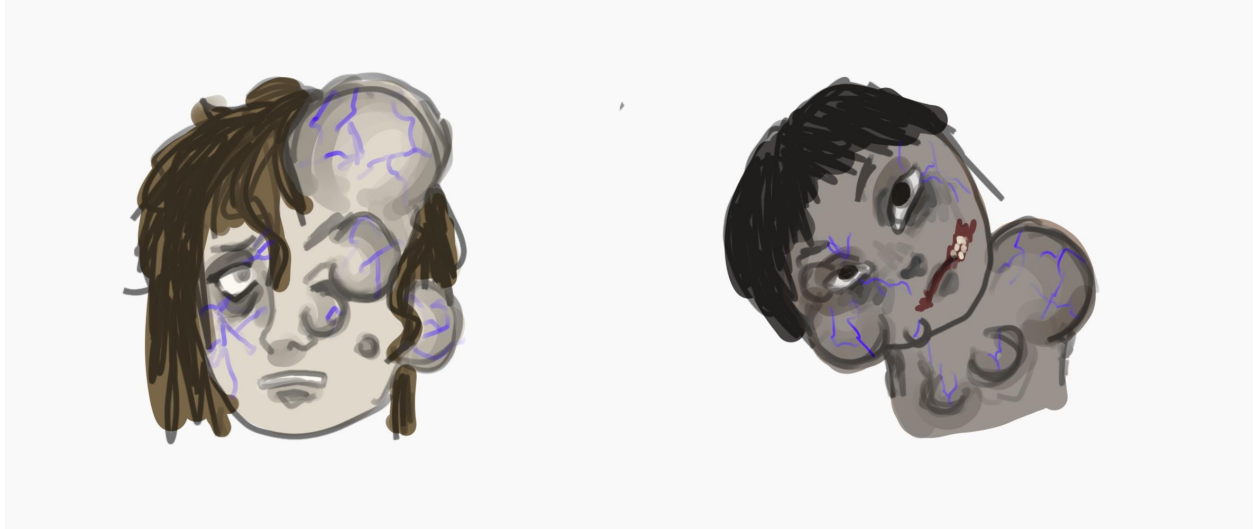

GOOD:

- Boost of energy
- Adrenaline
- Elated
- Like mephedrone

BAD:

- hives/bumps everywhere (bumps increase size)
- Strands/lines near the eyes
- Brain damage
- Dehydration
- Hunger increase (will soon make them eat their own or others flesh)
- Hallucinations
- Psychosis

Ex.

Only two examples cuz it's the same look everytime.

If getting bit by a deformity, you have a high risk of getting infected and slowly become one of them. It will sting and cause an itchy sensation. Cutting off the infected part of your body has a chance of stopping the spreading.

Luminary + controlled Luminary = cancels the infection and neutralizes

RELIGION:

They believed some sort of "Divine" from above. One supreme that is from above. The Great Divine is described as;

- All Seeing
 - Sees everything you do as it can see from anywhere
 - All statues of the angels and the Great Divine has eyes that follow
 - Can see the past, the present, and the future
 - "Seeing is believing"
- Power
 - High authority
 - Higher authority you are the closer you are to The Divine
 - Able to control everything
 - Destruct and create
- Justice
 - All about righteousness

- Breaking religious laws or any wrongdoings will bring you bad luck and lead you towards hell
- Guidance
 - Shows the path of your journey
 - Every action and journey was made by the Great Divine and was specifically made for you

There are small churches all around the big city. However there is one main church that the majority of people go to. The main church is the second biggest building in Ezerek (Government building being the biggest). The main church also serves as the sanctuary for all sin and evil. The church has statues and sculptures of angels that were said to “tilt their heads to watch” and their eyes moving to the direction you move. If staring at it long enough you get a sense of unnerving feelings and the feeling of being watched.

The deformities would be weaker and refuse to go near/inside the church. However that's only for Deformities that were turned by the emission. Ones turned into deformities by the drug can still go in and be fine. People pray for the deformities to be better and have all sins be taken away from their bodies.

Lots of people who turned into deformities by the drug would go in the church and pray to The Great Divine to have hope.

Majority of believers are supernaturals and L5 Drug Deformities.

Before, supernaturals were considered “demons” and “unholy creatures” of course it changed later on and now supernaturals are seen to be “creatures of the Divine”, “gifts from above” and “closer to the Divine”.

To “get rid of their sins” they go to a church and pray to the Divine. They whisper or say in their head the sins they have committed. As punishment and to reconnect with the Divine they get their blood (cutting or drawing blood doesn't matter how) and let it drip in the Divine's purity (water).

The Commemoration of The Great Divine:

Once a year they have their own celebration hurray!

Happens on May 3rd

Basically it's about the day The Divine came down and struck Justice, disintegrating/killing all sins and evil from the world. This “starts over” the world.

People were happy and they celebrated that day from now.

In celebration, people created a festival with foods that they give to The Divine. They sing and decorate with white and gold and grey.

Symbolism:

White - New beginnings, cleanliness and peace

Gold - inspiration, progress, wealth and prosperity

Grey - neutrality and balance, truth and wisdom

Regions

EZEREK :

Ezerek is in an Earth-like world. The majority is the same as real life but just slap on a fictional place somewhere in it.

The incidents that happened IRL isn't mentions or effected much to Ezerek (it really shouldn't matter anyway)

It used to be normal until the incident from the 1990s where half turned into supernaturals.

Ezerek is a city-state. It is futuristic with a utopian with a somewhat dark atmosphere and feeling. Utopian and futuristic as it is in the future (duh) and with more intellectual and advanced technology. Slightly dark as it still has lots of crimes happening all around (inspired by Gotham and Arcane)

Underneath Ezerek aka the Underground is more dull and dark. It's filled with neon lights as that's the only type of light source they have.

(Underground also inspired by Jackson's Star Colony from that one Aliens movie in 2024).

Well. This is more on what I imagined during the past.

The sun doesn't shine in the area. The Underground has visible sections of each area (the deformities area, poor area, etc) each section being blocked by borders and being led with different "leaders". Unlike the Upperground where the leaders are unionized, the Underground leaders are separated and only deal with their issues in their area. Of course if a big issue happens that's affecting all areas the leaders will get together.

Dusk - main Direct

Krei - main leader

Ezerek did not have much conflict towards other places however had conflict inside of Ezerek. Like it was said for the 10000th time, Ezerek had a war between each other with Supernaturals and Naturals fighting each other. Naturals fight for safety while Supernaturals fight for freedom. However that changed when Deformities were on the rise and they had to fight together to get rid of the deformities.

The most desirable object in the world is the Luminary Flower. It used to be in lots of places until the Luminary Hunt began. It's now very scarce as it is "close to being extinct". The second desirable thing is a controlled Luminary.

UPPERGROUND :

Directs:

- Dusk
- Rosalie
- Miriam
- Lorien
- João
- Kiyo Adler
- Vinali

M. DIRECT: DUSK

- #1 Underground hater LOL
- Made a deal with Krei where their side won't bother each other (obviously it ain't working)
- Using the vial to make the city improve and having the old and scraps out the picture by dumping every waste onto the Underground
- "I am the Divine."

C.A.S.O

> BOSS: ~~BELKENBURG~~ NAHIMANA

- Motto: Work in silence and let success make noise
- Is seen as a mental hospital on the outside, but in actuality it is experimenting on deformities and mentally unstable patients
- The surface area of the building is mostly cubicles and small offices. It is also where they lead the newer patients in and treat it as a mental hospital until they get to the underground part
- Underneath the building are the experiments and the labs where the scientists test.

- Wants to start over the world to create the “perfect world”

Tranquility

> BOSS: YUKINA

- An organization that was funded by the government. Is the key to trying to make peace.
- As years went on, the less people joined in and the less serious people were in there and how they were being taken as.
- However once Meredith committed arson to C.A.S.O they began to gain back recognition (and has officially started the war)
- When Erene took charge, she moved Tranquility further

The Superiors

- The rich people.
- They’re the high class and are more towards Dusk’s supporters.
- UNDERGROUND HATERS (for majority but not all)

UNDERGROUND :

Districts:

- 1. Inferiors - Krei | Robin
 - Poor people or people who were once Upperground but lost it all. This area is the most wealthy out of all sections.
 - Biggest district and most civil
- 2. Deformities Gas - Esmarie
 - People who inhaled the gases and turned into a deformity.
 - The most dangerous district as these types of deformities are considered “non human” and creatures.
 - This district was the area majority of the emission was spread in the past
- 3. Deformities Drug - White Raven
 - People who took drugs and became deformities.
 - Where all clubs and casinos are
 - Where the black market takes place
- 4. Wastelands - Cassius | Albus
 - area full of junk and Luminary that was dumped in the waters.
 - Off limits, only people that can access is the leaders
- 5. Upp. Borders - Peregrine

- guards and makes sure the people in the Underground stays down and keeps the border area civil (just like what Krei says).
- 6. Crime (S.I.C) - Seraph | Yìchén, Louna, Keres
 - The S.I.C covers the crimes and investigation all through Ezerek. Allowed to roam all over the other areas and even the Upperground but still has their own small section in the Underground.
 - The real boss/leader of the SIC does not go to meetings. Instead Seraph is used to be the speaker.

M. LEADER: KREI

- “Mysteriously” came down there and started helping the place out
- Only reason the deal worked (slightly) was because people like him more and would rather listen to Krei than Dusk 🧐
- A threat towards Dusk but Dusk needs him alive or else the Underground would RIOT (this happens in story)
- Does not consider himself as a “leader”.
- “No matter who you are in the hierarchy, no matter if you are superhuman or not, we are all the same in the end.”

Undergrounders

- People who was born and raised or was transferred to the Underground
- They are opposed to Dusk’s actions of making them separate with the Upperground as they think Dusk sees them as only creatures harhar

S.I.C

- A secret entrance way in the Uppergrounds but it has a really long elevator that goes down so people just take the short route of cutting into the Underground 🙌
- People in SIC only works when they have clients, other than that they can just chill in the building or do whatever they want
- HAS TO STAY ANONYMOUS (except Seraph)

Seraphs Liberation

> BOSS: SERAPH

- People who were in the W.R.A (White Raven Auction) and were bought by Seraph.
- They were bought by Seraph and is now one of his servants (or what he calls them “dogs”)
- “Safe house” is underneath a bridge

W.R.A

> BOSS: WHITE RAVEN

- An auction for people to buy/rent supernaturals (started to also sell regular human but rarely as people don’t care for them as much)
- Black market
- Is placed underneath a club, Hemlock Underground

POPULATION:

About 5 million people live in the city state. The majority of people live near the cities with a smaller portion living in more rural areas.

The place is very diverse with different races and with natural and supernaturals. Because of the diversity, they tried to separate themselves from others as they feel safer with those people who are the same as them (ex. The rich and the poor being on opposite places)

The place is shifting more into a city lifestyle. It developed into being more futuristic over the years with new inventions and creations being made.

The Upperground is becoming more futuristic and utopian because of it.

Underground is becoming more dystopian because it is seen as the waste fields and a place for deposits. The people in it are also very poor compared to the people from above.

The Underground holds more people than the Upperground.

People in the Upperground dress more formal or cyberpunk-like. Either they wear suits or something futuristic or something in between. People in the underground dress with more rough looking clothes and that are dystopian like. AND EMO LOOKING.

ABILITIES:

I love systems guys

I love making systems and acronyms for everything guys

The magic/abilities is also categorized on the type of magic it is.

Control :

- This type of ability has somewhat a mind of its own
- Like a parasite that's stuck with you
- Can be very aggressive when not trained properly
- You'll need to train it and will need to learn how to become one
- Control and the person shares the same mind
- More emotion, more it'll show

Transformation :

- This can either change your looks or your physical or both

- Transformation can sometimes not even be the ability
- It can be a change in your look but can have a Control ability
- You will have to adjust the changes it made

Elemental :

- The elements (fire, water, earth, etc)
- Literally like the Pokémon types
- People can have more than one
- People with more elemental power is more rare
- You will have to read books and learn what things the element can make/do

Natural Magic :

- Raw natural power
- Natural Magic is what you were born with
- Can be used using your mind
- You will need to train your mind to become stronger

GOVERNMENT:

The government is composed of a group of people (7) with one being the leader/director. To create rules or pass new guidelines, everyone in the government must agree or have at least a majority vote.

The main direct is the one that controls the majority. Their votes count as two instead of one. The main director is usually the one who does the talking and is in the spotlight.

Abilities and deformities have affected the law and government by increasing the amount of laws they have to make. There's some laws they have made specifically for supernaturals (ex. No use of extreme power, cost of destruction caused by ability increases by how much it destroyed, etc) Naturals have less rules than Supernaturals since they don't have any genetic mutation that made them have powers.

Each Direct can have an assistant if they want. If one of the Directs dies, the assistant takes over and becomes the next Direct.

Directs are usually picked by voting.

Of course the government is full of bias. People worship those who have power, wealth and "experience" of what seems right. They become blinded by the person's success and they ignore the others that suffer from them.

As of right now, Undergrounders/Inferiors are facing prejudice in Ezerek. Because of the government right now, they are forced to stay below level and be hidden from the public.

ATARAXIA ACADEMY:

I give up on this one. It's not even important bru.

Ataraxia is a private school that is mostly for rich kids. It is a rich, high class school with 3 floors. It also holds grades 6-12

Of course it still has the core curriculums that everyone needs to learn but they hold a special heart for any type of science education as that's what they mostly specialize in.

Indoor activities:

- Arts
- Music/theater
- Robotics/coding
- Chess
- Photography
- Cooking

Outdoor activities:

Krei has become a bigger threat to Dusk as Krei starts to try and take over. Krei got serious as Dusk brought "his people" to terrorize his people. Zane realizes Krei is his brother after finding out from Ellian and Aris so he hired Zorro to get him. He gets drugged by Zorro at the Heavens Nightclub and taken to the hidden basement that used to be Hellaine's house (was abandoned). Zane starts torturing him just because of his insanity and how much he wanted to see his brother fall for once. Krei managed to escape but when trying to get to the hospital he died.

Dusk stabs him on the chest and drops him in the waters of the church. Seraph drops in the water and doesn't bother trying to swim back. In his imagination, he sees The Great Divine's hands and cupping around him to lift him up. He sees the light and all angel statues "watch" him DIE. Cuts back to reality and his blood stains the pure water around the church with his body floating in the water. Blood stains conveying sins and how it covers the purity of life????

Summary

The Big Fat Summary:

Luminary Consumption | PAST - 1997

Luminary Deprivation | PRESENT - 2081

Luminary Erasure | FUTURE - 2091

Supernatural War - 1999-2003

Deformity War - 2003-2006

War lasts total - 8 yrs

Luminary Consumption:

The whole of the past (E.D.A) is basically just them killing the deformities. The health of people was declining as there were diseases going around. C.A.S.O. was made that stands for Control And Success Organization and was originally intended to Control the disease and successfully do so. The founder of the organization is Hellaine aka Dusk and Dawn's grandmother. They wanted to get rid of the disease and make people's immunity stronger. Of course there's people who are anti-vaxxers (important later).

In 1986, the Luminary Flower was discovered. This made the scientists in C.A.S.O try to experiment on it to make a vaccine for society. Reni who was one of the scientists in the organization was a workaholic but was also contaminated though never said anything about being sick. She injected the vial of Luminary inside her, thinking that it was a cure. She never said anything about it as it was her own secret. She thought it was helping when in actuality it was giving her the adrenaline and rush that helped her heart continue to beat.

Later on in 1997, an accident happened and emission and gases began to flow outside the labs. It went all over and people began to inhale it. Half of the population began to transform into supernaturals. Some people who transformed started to deform from the amount of gases. Supernaturals are ranked by 5 tiers of how dangerous they are (1 being safe and having barely any changes and 5 being the most deadly). People who are close to the laboratory and children were more prone to becoming L5 Deformities. And that's how it became a half and half society of supernaturals and naturals HUZZAH!

The Luminary Flower then became an actual vaccine in 1997 by the same laboratory and scientist. Sickness was still on the rise so people took it. However lots of people (majority of naturals) didn't because they feared it'll cause them to deform like what happened before. The vaccine did cause people to gain abilities and powers, making the vaccine unusable anymore and was dumped (people in the future used it as a drug).

Racism began. Supernaturals were getting hate crimes by the naturals. They were being called "dangerous" and "all should die to keep the world safe" WHEN THEY DIDNT DO ANYTHING. It was just the L5 deformities that's causing the problems. The government tries to control them and create a border between supernaturals and naturals to keep them apart. However, that caused a riot. War broke out between the supernaturals and naturals in 1999.

In the same year, Tranquility was established, which their idea was to bring peace between the Supernaturals and Naturals.

Even though they were at each other's throats, L5 deformities were killing both parties and terrorizing everyone. So supernaturals and naturals held truce and began working with each other in 2003 with supernaturals having to wear a collar and get checked. In exchange, the supernaturals get freedom. They were called the E.D.A (Ezerek Defense Army)

Focus on a specific group where Vian helps get rid of the majority of the L5 Deformities but then goes into a coma. He was taken to the C.A.S.O laboratory and was preserved (comes back in present time.) The war ended in 2006. The war made the economy of the nation #BROKE. In order to get money, the government made the Luminary Hunt in 2007. Basically they made everyone hunt for the Luminary Flowers, bring it to them so the government can exchange it with other nations and get money out of it (obviously giving some cash to the person who found it). People were SEARCHING FAR AND WIDE. The economy slowly went back up but people were desperate and they were all being depressed. In 2008, People found the dumped Luminary Drug and without hesitation used that to get money from others. They promoted it saying how it'll give you temporary happiness and makes you feel elated. This causes disfiguring of the people who injected it in them. Unlike the people who disfigured (Reni had the smarts to use her own batch she experimented that's why she didn't disfigure like them and looks the same). People who bought the drug were kept poor and became regular drug addicts. There was a big difference between the rich and the poor and the rich did not want to be near the poor as they kept asking for money and weren't a good influence on them.

In late 2008, the government made the Distribution Act, having the Superiors and Inferiors at separate levels. The Superiors/Rich were kept at ground level in Ezerek while the Inferiors/Poor were taken to the Underground of Ezerek. People who were poor would use the drug to make themselves feel better when in actuality they made themselves and their condition worse.

In 2009, Hellaine's grandchildren were born. A set of twins named Dusk and Dawn. They become very important in the present time. The luminary flower was declared to be almost extinct and will not be hunted anymore.

In 2009, Reni was still not feeling well with the drug making her feel more sick. Not knowing Hellaine figured out her secret. Reni also figured out Hellaine's secret of trying to make immortality. With pictures and files of deformities and actual people. Reni sneaked to Hellaine's house and snooped around, realizing that Hellaine had a hidden shed full of L5 Deformities. She got caught and tried to flee when Hellaine suffocated her using anesthetic and put her to sleep. Reni woke up in a room in the basement strapped into a chair. Reni became the next human experiment for Hellaine to see if she can make her immortal. Reni died from overdose by both injections of her own and Hellaine's and on top of that she wasn't able to inject her own vial in her to keep the adrenaline going.

Reni's physical body died but her spirit still roamed. Her ability to astral project helped her stay alive. She used her other ability to recognition helped foresee the future. Only using bits and pieces of the future she can see, she confirmed to combine her spirit in Nahimana's body (switches person later on).

In 2028 Dusk and Dawn are in college. Not really important but it helps me remember dates.

In 2035, the twins stopped aging at age 26. Hellaine gave them the vial and made them drink it which successfully made them immortal. Hellaine died the same year at the age of 74. Even though they are immortal and can't age, they can still die by any other causes.

In 2035, Dusk took over Ezerek as the Main Direct/Leader. He made sure that the rich and poor were on different sides and would only benefit the rich side. He would throw the old and garbage down where the Underground is. He went down to find the dumped Luminary and the other leftovers and reused it into making it as the tech of Ezerek (obviously making it stable). Still, there were a lot more barrels full of Luminary that were kept in the Underground and still used as a drug.

In 2049, Belkenburg took the place as being the boss of C.A.S.O

In 2050, The W.R.A (White Raven Auction) was made. It was made to get supernaturals and deformities to be sold or rented to people who wanted them.

In 2066, Maverick was about to k-word himself when he was stopped by Aris and Szilvie. Szilvie gave him one of the few Luminary Flowers as a small gift. This intrigued him and made him create a project called Project R.A.T (Revive and Transform) when he accidentally spilt his blood on it and saw his blood begin to move and eventually explode. During a contest about discovery, he showed his project. It backfires as the rat that was injected with the vial turned monstrous but it made Dusk interested. Maverick has gone missing after a couple of weeks of the incident. Soon, he was declared dead. However Dusk finally got a hold of that flower and used it as the full powerhouse for Ezerek. Flowers are more powerful than the liquid versions.

In 2067, Robin was born. He was seen as the "golden child" from the Divine.

In 2070, Erene's arm was ripped off by a deformity that got out of its cage. While bleeding out, Reni watched. She looked into the future of other alternates and realized Erene was a better fit. So instead of Nahimana, she combined her spirit with Erene. They became two souls in one body with a third ability of switching hosts.

PRESENT TIME.

Luminary Deprivation:

In 2081, Tranquility tried to fight getting rid of C.A.S.O with proof and send it to the government (been trying to do that for years actually). However, with Dusk secretly funding them still, he gets rid of all evidence before it even goes to the other Directs. The Directs have a small meeting talking/arguing about the future of Ezerek, the City-state (introduces Dusk, Rosalie, Zorro, Zane B. Miriam, Lorien, João, Kiyo Adler, Vinali). Dusk wants the two sides to join together so he can rule both sides together. However Rosalie disagrees and agrees more with Krei that they would rather be independent from the Upperground than to have to be part of their ruling as she thinks it's the best choice for them.

Belkenburg changed the idea of C.A.S.O as now the whole premise is to control the nation and to successfully control the people (communism). Erene and Rurik realize they have been lied to and helped Tranquility as they were one of the people who used to work with them. Yukina, boss of Tranquility hired some spies (Asariel, Zira, Kami) from the S.I.C (Spy Investigation Cooperation) and made Erene and Rurik find actual, credible evidence than the ones they had before since now they can go inside the building. While Tranquility videotaped everything at their place. They finally got their evidence and came back to the Tranquility building when they met Seraph in the office (WHHAAT?!?). He told them that it's useless. He's been tracking both parties and told them that Dusk has been getting rid of evidence so they can't just mail it there. Plus, Tranquility has slowly deteriorated as people left and don't see the point of them anymore. Still, they kept the evidence with them. Meredith didn't like how they don't do anything and sided with Seraph that they don't do anything about the situations. She arranges a secret meeting without Yukina.

So basically a few days later they just lit the C.A.S.O building on fire. THEY CALLING WAR ON THEM THEY WANT THEM GONE!!! Meredith made Robin and Kami to go inside the building to place the bombs because they're small enough and Kami can just go through walls 🙌. Robin gets a sense of Deja Vu that he was here before (I PLAYED THESE GAMES BEFORE) and that he used to spend time in the cells. Him stopping led to him being trapped as the bombs began to explode. Nahimana managed to escape with some deformities and Belkenburg stayed behind (obviously other people fired but they're background characters). Rurik went back in the building to save Robin while Robin gets crazy hallucinations and flashbacks. While saving, Belkenburg slit Rurik's throat in half because he ran right into it. FIRST DEATH. In other words, it was a success but it didn't kill the people they wanted to kill. Erene saw and now she wants #revenge. Reni does not want to but she can't stop her.

Erene's depression arc begins. Yukina is mad that happened but Meredith is still planning ahead.

Interviews happen and Ellian tries to look through the crime scene but meets Aris, one of the police there. They talked and had some similarities. Aris realizes she was the sister of Maverick and asked her to help him find Maverick AND SHE WAS DOING THE SAME THING (omg so much in common). They meet Noella and Warrin. Warrin tells everyone who they are and blah blah while Noella does the work. She was able to sense the people who did it specifically and at least what direction C.A.S.O went. Then it switched to C.A.S.O with Belkenburg and Nahimana with her deformities. They were walking to a bar and met up with Dusk. They begged Dusk to help him because their place was just destroyed and Dusk said NO. He tells them that "bro you've been using me for money just to do what y'all want. Go to the Underground where you belong." So he dips. Dusk creates some meeting that talks about the future and whatever happened to the C.A.S.O Belkenburg is #mad that his best buddy left him. Belkenburg and Nahimana and others went to the Underground as they had no place to work anymore. They meet with Krei and BEGGED FOR MERCY. THEY BEGGED WITH KNEES ON THE GROUND. Krei was like "sure but get rid of those deformities I don't want here in my division. Take it to the Deformity Division." Nahimana kinda mad pretends to do so (still kept it). This leads to the deformities to start roaming everywhere in every section of the Underground. They ain't anything but still scaring people off. This allows the leaders of the sections in the Underground to have a meeting (parallel to Upp. Meeting). They argue towards Krei that he shouldn't have done that and that the "random" people should get registered as their divisions (introduces to some background characters White Raven, Esmarie, Cassius, Albus, and Peregrine). Krei tells them that it's actually C.A.S.O with Belkenburg and they're SHOCKED because they didn't think they'll be down here. However they still want them gone as they're causing disruption to their divisions. Somehow this turns into an argument about Krei's role as main lead of the underground and how he was only leader because he shaped the underground's society but his leadership is booty (tho Krei didn't even wanna be a leader so he doesn't even know why they were mad about that 🤔). The only reason he's the leader is because the people forced him as he's the backbone of the whole underground society. C.A.S.O was soon registered to be in District I and stayed there. Even when they were kicked out of the Upperground and stayed in the Underground, they secretly grew there instead. Seraph knows and tells Belkenburg he knows that he's growing secretly but Belkenburg is like "Imao yeah but I know your secret too" he tells him he knows his so-called "family" that they were people he bought from the W.R.A. Seraph is like "ok bro..."

They decided to work together to not eat each other out. Seraph and his "dogs" will do the heavy lifting and the last few people of C.A.S.O will still do the experimenting and stuff.

Krei meets up with Tranquility (huge because he's known for not coming out of his area) and is kinda mad. Bro tells them "Yall made this whole mess and us down here are forced to clean it up." He mostly tells Yukina since she's boss (now she's a big mad at Meredith). He was also slightly bitter towards Erene as she used to be part of C.A.S.O. Krei stayed at Tranquility just for a bit and snooped around the area.

This is the first encounter between Krei and Robin.

At the same time he visits the Directs because that's also their issue (to some extent). Krei is like "Bro how are you guys gonna sit all day and not do anything about what just happen" and the directs are like "🧐 ain't really my problem anymore."

(Character development stuff)

2 years later, 2083, C.A.S.O decided to come back to the surface secretly and placed Tranquility on fire. This causes the death of Meredith and the start of Robin's villain arc and his insanity grows. The S.I.C lend a helping hand and lets Tranquility come stay at their place (kinda musty and nasty but it works ig). This helps meet with the S.I.C group of characters (Zira, Asariel, Holliss, Seraph, Warrin, Noella, and Kami). Cmon everyone let's bond together!!!

Erene tries to do some bonding with Robin but he said "NO! We are NOT the same!!" Robin would then disappear every now and then.

Robin would then meet with Krei once again, starting to follow in his footsteps and drifting away from Tranquility. He meets Flick, a great mechanic.

[deepens the setting of the Underground since we've been in the Upperground for a good while]

Belkenburg dies.

Seraph liberation and CASO have been on the rise since Nahimana took over. Began to threaten both parties of the state.

Erm so basically I only had the full idea of the past but I have no clue what happens in present time whoopsies

Reni

- Robin dies in the end by overdose
- Economy decrease again
- War end
- how to make Seraph's Liberation important
- Show the contrast of UPP and Und
- PAST Main idea: get rid of deformities, have freedom
- PRESENT Main idea: Stop C.A.S.O, war between Und. & Upp.
- FUTURE Main idea: Stop Robin, create peace

Scenario

Scenarios/Arcs Ideas:

> Subway/train

- people fighting on a subway/train

> Interrogation

- Someone interviewing another from a glass screen

> Club/auction

> Break out

- Robin kills the White Raven (ruh roh 🤩) and saves/breaks out everyone who was in the black market and people who were going to the auctions, making him their “lord and savior” and “the closest person to the Divine”

> Krei

- Krei coming back as Maverick (not canon?) and getting interviewed by every single reporter including his sister
- Also meeting Aris, Eun, and whatever the others name is again

> After burn

- Belkenburg&Nahimana meets with Krei to ask for their stay
- In the beginning when they blow up the building, Robin stands there dissociating with fire around him creating a soft, melancholy tone. Years later he hits that same pose but older with more of a vengeful and aggressive tone IT SOUNDS BETTER IN MY HEAD TRUST
- Robin meets his mom that left him (not canon? We don't got time for that)

Deformity/human cloning (idea came from Eckenroth class LMAO)

Make WRA important somehow

Nahimana, why??

How does Krei's affect the MC?

Connect:

- CASO & GOV - secret mutual until it burns.
- CASO & Tranq - beef, burned each other places down
- Tranq & GOV - one sided beef
- GOV & UND - agreement/truce
- SIC & Tranq - work together, SIC lets Tranq in with them
- UND & Tranq - Tranq giving some help towards those in need, UND thinks it's useless
- WRA & UND - WRA in the UND, kidnaps the homeless
- WRA & CASO - Nahimana and WR has a truce
- WRA & CASO - rescue all victims from WRA
- SIC & WRA - trying to find all secrets of them and expose

E.D.A

In the 2000s, their weapons were already advanced unlike the 2000s IRL. Their weapons (Knives, bullets, etc) were coated with Luminary as it was one of the things that harms them. The weapons were mostly used by Naturals while Supernaturals used their abilities and only used the weapons provided if needed.

Of course while at the war, in order to make things seem “equal” the government (that consisted of Naturals at the time) forced the Supernaturals who were part of the E.D.A (Ezerek Defense Army) to have a code in their necks and inside a bomb. This was to be sure that they won’t be so dangerous.

The weapons used by the E.D.A are only used in the E.D.A (with the exception of Dusk & Vian who uses it too). However others use normal weapons that aren’t coated with anything. Whoever uses it that isn’t in the exception will be fined and the weapon will be confiscated. (Obviously in the story there will be people who use it LOL). Like it said, the weapons used are regular weapons with some hint of cyberpunk-inspired weapons.
