My manuscripts allow the concept of transcendence to take center stage. They delve into the profound shift in consciousness that occurs during moments of awakening. These episodes are akin to glimpses beyond the ordinary, where boundaries of self dissolve, and we connect with something far greater. We are exactly as God created us, and just need to remember the magnificent implications of this Divine Truth.

The Bible was written by hundreds over thousands of years and re-interpreted too many times to mention, thus much doctrine is simply not true. I'm 72 and have been a "Christian of a different color" for over 50 years. Jesus did not die for sin, Hell does not exist and life outside Heaven is impossible. We're taught the Big Bang Theory in grade school. So, everything came from nothing? Really? "A Course In Miracles" by Helen Schucman was written by one woman and never re-interpreted. I've written 20 books about this 1333-page manuscript and have found nothing that is not logical truth. Bob

14 Core Beliefs Of “A Course In Miracles” by Helen Schucman

1. This world is not real. God did not create this world nor even know of its existence. The entire universe is an illusion dreamt by the Son of God.
2. Pure non-duality: Anything that comes from God must be exactly like Him. God could not create anything that is not perfect, or else He wouldn't be perfect.
3. Consciousness is the domain of the ego and was conceived after we dreamt of separation.
4. Spirit is unchanging, perfect, and eternal. This is the state of Heaven.
5. Truth is not different for everyone. Truth is truth.
6. There are no levels in Heaven. All conflict arises from the concept of levels. We are either enlightened and back in Reality with God, or still dreaming of separation. Only life in Heaven is real.

7. Life in all its myriad forms or possibilities is already scripted at the instant of separation. The only choice is in our mind, where we decide to identify with the Holy Spirit or with the ego, when interpreting each moment.
8. Life in this world is insane. Nothing makes sense in this world. The world was made as an attack on God.
9. There is only One Higher Self, the Holy Spirit. Also known as the Voice for God, our memory of God, or the reflection of God's Love in our dream.
10. Collectively, we are the Son of God. God created only One Son of God.
11. There is no evil or devil, only illusory madness projected by our ego mind and thankfully, they are not real.
12. Every attack is an attack upon ourselves. We project our unconscious guilt onto (dream) figures or situations that seemingly attack us. So now they are guilty, not us. The cause of our guilt arises from our imagined separation from God.
13. Life is a lesson. Every opportunity is used by the Holy Spirit to teach forgiveness to undo the ego mind.
14. Time and space are illusions, and Spirit has nothing to do with them.

René Descartes was a French Philosopher who said in 1637, "I think, therefore I am". God was asked, "Who are You?" The reply, "I Am". Now that we understand consciousness is the domain of the ego, Rene's reply becomes, "I think, therefore I am not." Say a little prayer and ask for understanding, this is very true. God Is, Bob
