

Under the hood questions:

1. Who is your avatar? The person you are trying to sell to

Thomas is 40 years old. He has 2 kids and a wife. He is a small business owner and wants to scale his business into a 7 figure-generating machine. He values discipline and competence. He wants all his employees to work in one big symphony and harmony with each other. He loves spending time with his children but has very little time for it.

2. What is their current situation and why is it so bad?

He is going through some financial difficulties. He struggles to keep up with his running costs and maintains a positive mindset to continue his business journey. He feels extremely down at the moment and has no idea how to become on top of his current situation. Also, he has little time for his children and feels very bad about it.

3. What is their dream situation and why is it so desirable?

He dreams of an exploding business with lots of sales. He wants to adopt a healthier and positive mindset to maintain the joy of being a business owner. He wants to overcome his negative thoughts to become a better father for his children and also a better boss for his employees. He wants to become a guiding hand for all the people around him and have a positive impact on them.

4. What problems are stopping them from getting to their dream situation and how will your product help them?

His mindset and attitude are the roots of his problem. He needs to find a way to shift his attitude in order to become a more successful business owner/father and get the motivating boost to push forward in his journey

The product will help him to overcome his negative beliefs and shift his attitude into a more positive one in order to reach his goals.
