Who am I talking to?

I am talking to people who want to start real estate and thinking about whether real estate is the right career for them or not.

Where are they now?

They signed up to my email list and now they're reading this email. Before they became a member of my list, they were scrolling on social media to get information about real estate. But they still don't know if it is the right career for them because there is a lot of information on YouTube.

What actions do I want them to take at the end of my copy?

I want them to understand the three important things if they want to come to real estate and join our community to understand real estate and start working in a branch of real estate, like realtor, agent, etc.

What are they going to experience inside of my copy to make them take action?

They are going to know three things before they start working in the real estate industry. They are going to experience the pain and the joys of working in the real estate industry.

SL: Real Estate Is Not For You If You...

Hey >>name<<

You subscribed to our email list wondering, and struggling...

If real estate would be my final career?

Let's explore...

#1 If you despise talking to people:

Every real estate agent, realtor, investor – you name it.

They all have to engage in conversations to sell or buy property.

Because They don't have any other option unless they hire a Robot🤖.

If you've ever chatted with a friend working in the real estate industry, you'd know they don't shut up unless you interrupt them.

#2 If you fear rejection:

The fear of rejection can sometimes be a deal-breaker in real estate careers.
It's the harsh reality.

But if you endure and persist in the game, I can't predict what will happen...
But surely you'll not only thrive in real estate but also in real life.

#3 If you're content with a 9-to-5 job:

If you prefer living a conventional life,

STOP READING, RIGHT NOW.

Are you still reading?

Ok, hear me out....

You'll encounter relentless challenges, pain, and numerous resounding "NOs."

But in the end, these experiences make the journey truly incredible.

Now, if you're certain about your capabilities and ready to step into real estate.
