

Griffin Torrens Terms of Service

When Receiving artwork from me, you are agreeing to the following.

General

- Signatures and Watermarks I add may not be removed, covered, or cropped out. Exceptions: Profile Picture, Avatar, ask me to move the signature elsewhere.
- I have the right to use artwork I create in my portfolio to promote my business. I will credit characters where I can, but you can request I remove the link.
- My work is always improving. If you commission me, you are doing so at my current style and prices. Past or future ones will not affect this.
- My artwork may not be used to help train AI. I don't hate AI, but I dislike how many use it.
- I may refuse work for whatever reason, I am a living person with emotions and a life outside of what you see.
- I may add more terms as needed/problems arise.

Character Designs

- You may change/add minor details to the design, such as scars, stylisation, or slight patterns arrangements. However it must remain recognisable, and I must remain the credited creator.
- You may not sell characters I create for more than you paid unless additional value is added. Example: You pay 10 for the character, commission/draw artwork worth 10, then you may sell it for 20 if you see fit.

Artwork

- You may not profit off my artwork unless discussed. This includes: selling prints, hiding it behind a paywall, or using it to add value to a character more than you paid for the artwork (gift art adds no value).

Thank you for understanding!

These terms protect the artwork I put time and energy into creating.
