To All Crater Cross Country Supporters:

The 2026 cross country season is fast approaching, and our athletes are already putting in the work: running thousands of miles, attending an outstanding team camp in Park City, volunteering at 100-mile races, staffing a kids running camp for local children, and preparing for another school year. Their commitment, discipline, and service continue to make Crater Cross Country a program our community can be proud of.

That work has produced remarkable results. In 2025, our teams won the Midwestern League titles, bringing Crater to 26 conference championships between the men and women over the last 20 years. Crater athletes swept the league individual titles in both JV and varsity races. At the Oregon State Cross Country Championships, our men won the OSAA 5A State Championship and our women finished as state runners-up. Both teams then qualified for Nike Cross Regionals in Spokane and represented Crater and Central Point with pride.

Individual success has been equally impressive. Garrett Faught captured the 2025 Oregon 5A individual cross country championship, following Crater standout Tayvon Kitchen, the 2024 state champion and a Gatorade Oregon Boys Cross Country Runner of the Year and Oregonian Cross Country Runner of the Year. Josiah Tostenson also earned Gatorade Oregon Boys Track & Field Runner of the Year honors and was named The Oregonian's Track and Field Athlete of the Year.

Crater graduates have continued competing at the collegiate level across the country, including the University of Washington, Brigham Young University, West Point, Saint Mary's, Southern Oregon, Lane Community College, George Fox, Portland State, Oregon Tech, Western Oregon, Washington State, Seattle University, and other programs. Arianna Marks went on to become an NCAA Division III national champion in the 5,000m and 10,000m and a national runner-up in cross country. These achievements reflect the talent, character, and long-term development fostered by Crater Cross Country.
