

Thank you for participating as an Audies judge and welcome to the Finalist Round of the 2025 competition!

In this round, you will listen to each assigned audiobook, and rank each title on a 1-7 (7 highest) scale in areas of Performance, Direction, Production, and Overall. Please keep notes as you go and be uncompromising in your search for excellence.

Be sure not to vary the listening speed in any way as it is important to assess each audio at recorded speed. Listen for the highest quality: a polished, professional narration coupled with a clean, clear technical production. In this round, we do expect you to listen to the audiobooks in your library in their entirety. But we also understand that you might have a 30-hour-long title on your list that you can tell, an hour in, will not measure up to the others. Please use your discretion, and just be sure you give every title a fair shake even if you don't love it from the start.
