If you have provided us with your e-mail address for this purpose, we provide newsletter services, i.e. sending commercial information regarding the products or services we offer. Providing this data is voluntary, but necessary to send the newsletter.

Personal data is processed:

- in case of sending marketing content to the user as part of the newsletter – the legal basis for processing is legitimate interest in connection with the consent granted by you;
- for analytical and statistical purposes – the legal basis for processing is legitimate interest of conducting analyzes of user activity at the website in order to improve the functionalities and improve our offer;
- in order to possibly establish, investigate or defend against claims – the legal basis for processing is a legitimate interest consisting in the protection of our rights.

- contact via e-mail

In the event that you contact us via e-mail, you also provide us with your e-mail address as the sender of the message. You may be asked to provide additional data only if it is necessary to handle the case to which the contact relates. In this case, the legal basis is our legitimate interest in the need to resolve the reported matter related to the website.

- data of users of social media profiles and people commenting on content on websites

Our profiles on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn, Discord, YouTube, Disqus, Google are public. When visiting our profile, you provide us with your personal data (e.g. account name, comments, likes, Internet identifiers and the IP address of the device used).

If you comment on content on our websites, you provide us with your username and e-mail address. These data are processed in order to: (i) enable us to effectively run our profile or blog in connection with the promotion of various types of events, services and products by us, and (ii) communicate with users. The legal basis for the processing of personal data is our legitimate interest in promoting our business, improving the quality of our services as well as ongoing communication with users of profiles, fanpage or blog.

NOTE: the above information does not apply to the processing of your personal data by the administrators of individual websites.

- How long do we process personal data?

The period of data processing depends on the character of service provided and the purpose of processing. As a rule, the data are processed:

- a) for the duration of performance of the service;
- b) until the consent is withdrawn;
- c) until submission of effective objection
- d) until an effective data erasure is requested.

The data processing period may be extended if the processing is necessary to establish, investigate or defend against possible claims, and after this period, only if and to the extent that it will be required by law.

- What rights do you have in relation to the processing of your personal data?

We guarantee the implementation of all rights of persons whose data we process, including the right to:

- access to personal data, including obtaining a copy;
- data rectification;
- data erasure;
- restriction of processing;
- data portability;
- withdraw consent at any time (which does not affect the lawfulness of the processing based on consent before its withdrawal);
- raise an objection;

IF YOU WANT TO EXERCISE YOUR RIGHTS, PLEASE CONTACT US FIRST.

- To whom we make your personal data available?

Personal data on the basis of appropriate agreements are made available to entities processing data on behalf of the Controller. Such entities process data only in accordance with our instructions, maintaining their confidentiality and security. We have the right to control the processing of the data made available by us.

List of authorized processors:

Fast and Forward Energy Antoni Szymczak

In other cases, personal data may be disclosed to authorized entities only on the basis of provisions of law.

- Data transfer outside the EEA

The Controller transfers personal data outside the EEA as part of the use of the services of such subcontractors as: Fast and Forward Energy Antoni Szymczak

We make every effort to ensure an adequate level of personal data protection, after careful consideration of data security offered by sub-suppliers, and the transfer of data takes place on the basis of standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission.

- Social media

The websites use plugins and other social tools provided by social networks, such as Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn, Discord, YouTube, Disqus, Google.

In connection with use of websites that contain such a plug, your browser establishes a direct connection with the servers of social network administrators (service providers). The content of the plugin is transferred by given service provider directly to your browser and integrated with the website. Thanks to this integration, service providers receive information that your browser has displayed a given website, even if you do not have a profile at given service provider or are not logged in at the moment. Such information (along with the IP address) is sent by your browser directly to the server of a given service provider (some servers are located in the USA) and stored there.

If you have logged in to one of the social networking sites, the service provider will be able to directly assign the visit to the site to your profile on the given social networking site. If you use a given plug-in, such as the "Like" button, the relevant information will also be sent directly to the server of the given service provider and stored there. In addition, this information will be published on a given social network and will appear to people added as your contacts.

The purpose and scope of data collection and their further processing and use by service providers, as well as the possibility of contact and your rights in this regard and the possibility of making settings to protect your privacy are described in the privacy policy of individual service providers.

If you do not want social networking sites to assign the data collected during your visit to our website directly to your profile on a given social networking site, you must log out before visiting Controller's website. It is also possible to completely prevent the loading of plugins on the website by using appropriate extensions for your browser, e.g. blocking scripts.

- Cookies policy

Cookies and other tracking technologies

Our website, like almost all other websites, uses cookies to provide you with the best user experience. Cookies are small text information stored on your end device (e.g. computer, tablet, smartphone) that can be read by our ICT system.

See below for more details.

Consent to cookies.

During the first visit to our websites, you are displayed information about the use of cookies along with a question about consent to use of cookies. Thanks to a special tool, you can manage cookies from the website level. In addition, you can always change cookie settings from your browser or delete cookies altogether. Remember, however, that disabling cookies may cause difficulties in using the website, as well as other websites that use cookies.

Third party cookies.

Our website, like most modern websites, uses functions provided by third parties, which involve the use of cookies from third parties. The use of such cookies is described below.

Analysis and statistics.

We use cookies to track website statistics, such as the number of visitors, type of operating system and web browser used to browse the website, time spent on the website, subpages visited, etc. We use Google Analytics in this regard, which involves the use of Google LLC cookies. Within the mechanism for managing cookie settings, you have the option to decide whether you consent to our use of analytical cookies in your case or not.

Marketing.

We use marketing tools such as Facebook Pixel to target ads to you. This is related to the use of Meta cookies (formerly Facebook). Within the cookie settings, you can decide whether you consent to our use of marketing cookies in your case or not.

Social tools.

We provide the opportunity to use social functions, such as sharing content on social networks and subscribing to a social profile. The use of these functions involves the use of cookies of social network administrators such as Facebook and LinkedIn.

We embed videos from YouTube at the website. When you play such recordings Google LLC cookies are used for the YouTube service.

Server logs.

Using the website involves sending queries to the server on which the website is stored. Each query directed to the server is saved in the server logs.

Logs include Your IP address, server date and time, information about the web browser and operating system you use. Logs are saved and stored on the server.

The data stored in the server logs are not associated with specific people using the website and are not used by us to identify you.

The server logs are only auxiliary material used to operate the website, and their content is not disclosed to anyone except those authorized to administer the server.

- Amendments to the privacy policy

The privacy policy is verified on an ongoing basis and updated if necessary. The current version of the policy was adopted and has been in force since [•] 2029.
