

Pumpkin Costume Celebration 1

As the night of all the monsters comes by, a group of silly friends work on their costumes for that special night, in this night you can be anything you want, extra points when spooky is also on the plate. And Cypher, Lil Loaf and Bruce know that.

This is what brings our friends together this time, the idea of choosing the best costume for beach one, which will be their first decision to make?

The first one to choose is Cypher, his brownish and orange colors make everyone think of a big pumpkin, wait, that doesn't sound right, or does it?

What is supposed to be a pumpkin? everyone asks, and the words that come out of Cypher's mouth makes everything make much more sense...

"A pumpkin! The king of pumpkins!" Cypher's tone sounds excited as he takes out a big pumpkin, Little Loaf could fit all inside it!

"Where did you take that??" Bruce can't believe his eye as he investigates the big and round pumpkin "What are you planning to do, Cypher?"

"Isn't it obvious? I'm going to make my costume out of this!" The excitement Cypher showed since the beginning is growing more and more, but Bruce and Lil Loaf just look confused. "What?" They say at the same time. Are you guys going to continue with the questions or help me with this? Cypher says as he takes out a bunch of carving knives and other tools. Bruce and Lil Loaf look at each other again, but now with a big smile on their face.

As the night started they all began to cut and carve the giant pumpkin, Lil Loaf even found himself taking all the pumpkin seeds out making some space for himself inside. "See? I told you I could fit inside!" All three laugh and continue carving a big smile on the pumpkin. "Some cuts here, and some cuts there, when we finish this I'll be the biggest Pumpkin of all!"

And like that, after some hours of carving, a big smiley face was traced on the pumpkin and by, somehow, attaching some straps to the pumpkin and making a little pumpkin crow with some of the leftovers, Cypher's costume was done!

Our friends couldn't be happier with the results, but, after this good time with friends, like it always happens with this group, there was a mess all around.

"So... What are we going to do about all this mess?"

Maybe some pumpkin pie?

"I... actually think that could work..."
