1. User Interviews

Introduction:

Start by introducing yourself and explaining the purpose of the interview.

Assure the participant that their feedback is valuable and will be kept confidential.

Section 1: User Background

Can you tell me a bit about yourself, your occupation, and how long you've been living in your current apartment complex?

How often do you use the communal laundry facilities in your apartment complex, and what factors influence your laundry habits?

Section 2: Current Laundry Experience

Walk me through your typical process when you decide to do laundry in your apartment complex. What steps do you take?

Have you ever encountered challenges or frustrations when using the laundry facilities? Could you describe any specific instances?

Do you plan your laundry tasks or do you usually decide to do laundry spontaneously based on machine availability?

Section 3: Expectations from a Laundry App

How do you feel about the idea of using a mobile app to manage your laundry tasks in your apartment complex?

Can you share what features or functionalities you would consider the most valuable in a laundry services app designed for apartment residents?

Are there any specific pain points or inconveniences you hope a laundry app could address?

Section 4: Machine Reservation and Availability

Imagine you could use an app to reserve a specific washing machine or dryer in advance. How would you feel about this feature?

What level of flexibility in rescheduling or canceling reservations would be important to you?

Section 5: Payment Process

How would you prefer to make payments for laundry services through the app? Can you explain your payment preferences and any concerns related to this?

Would you be open to using a wallet system to manage your laundry payments through the app?

Section 6: Notifications and Communication

How would you like to receive notifications about your laundry activities, such as cycle completion or reservation confirmations? What communication channels do you prefer?

Are there any concerns or preferences regarding the frequency and types of notifications you'd like to receive?

Section 7: Accessibility and Inclusivity

Are there any specific accessibility features you believe should be considered to ensure that the app is usable by residents with disabilities?

How can the app be designed to accommodate residents of different age groups, technological proficiencies, and language preferences?

Section 8: Competitive App Analysis

Are you currently using any other laundry service apps, and if so, what do you like or dislike about them? Are there features you find valuable in those apps?

Section 9: Additional Feedback and Suggestions

Is there anything else you would like to share about your experience with laundry facilities in your apartment complex or any specific features you would like to see in a laundry services app?

Conclusion:

Thank the participant for their time and insights.

Mention any follow-up steps or actions based on their feedback.

Assure them that their input will be valuable in improving the laundry services app.
