

1. What inspired Associate Professor Füsün Haklıdır to choose her profession?

- a) She wanted to be a medical doctor originally
- b) She wanted to do something to benefit humanity
- c) She was interested in renewable energy

The answer is b) She wanted to do something to benefit humanity

2. Where did Associate Professor Füsün Haklıdır (interviewee) work after completing her PhD?

- a) TÜBİTAK Institute of Earth and Marine Sciences
- b) Istanbul Bilgi University
- c) Zorlu Energy

The answer is a) TÜBİTAK Institute of Earth and Marine Sciences

3. What incentive led to the development of renewable energy technologies according to the interviewee?

- a) International climate agreements
- b) Oil crisis in the 1970s
- c) Technological advancements

The answer is b) Oil crisis in the 1970s

4. According to the interviewee, how can we transition away from fossil fuels?

- a) Rapidly build solar and wind farms globally
- b) Introduce clean coal technologies
- c) Provide incentives for different countries at different development levels

The answer is c) Provide incentives for different countries at different development levels

5. What impact does climate change have according to the interviewee?

- a) Reduction in water resources
- b) Food shortages and energy scarcity
- c) Increased migration

The answer is d) All of the above

6. What role do international energy organizations play according to the interviewee?

- a) Determine ethical values in the energy sector
- b) Share technical information

c) Promote renewable technologies

The answer is a) Determine ethical values in the energy sector

7. What challenges did some European countries face due to the Ukraine-Russia war?

- a) Restrictions on oil supplies
- b) Restrictions on natural gas supplies
- c) Power outages

The answer is b) Restrictions on natural gas supplies

8. What technology has been utilized as an alternative to natural gas for heating in Europe?

- a) Solar panels
- b) Geothermal heat pumps
- c) Wind turbines

The answer is b) Geothermal heat pumps

9. According to the interviewee, what approach should be taken to facilitate a global energy transition?

- a) Focus only on developed countries
- b) Utilize all low-carbon solutions
- c) Ignore realities in developing countries

The answer is b) Utilize all low-carbon solutions

10. What was Associate Professor Füsün Haklıdır's view on using earthquake energy as a potential energy source?

- a) Not renewable but worth exploring concept
- b) It is definitely renewable energy
- c) It will never be possible to use

The answer is a) Not renewable but worth exploring concept