

Criminal Law

Partner Joseph D. Nohavicka heads our diverse and sophisticated criminal practice which encompasses all aspects of criminal law. With more than 25 years of experience, Nohavicka and his team are always prepared to provide a strategic defense and work towards favorable outcomes for our clients.

While dealing with the criminal justice system can be an overwhelming and confusing process, our team is here to walk you through every step of the way and take care of your needs.

Whether your case is routine or complex, we are fully equipped and ready to handle everything from a felony to a heavy white collar defense.

When you are represented by our firm, we are accessible 24/7 for all of your questions and concerns. You can expect high-quality representation and know that you will always receive individualized attention. If you have been accused of a crime, you need a legal expert with the knowledge, confidence, and experience to speak for you and your rights. It is crucial to contact us for advice prior to your communicating with authorities.

Contact us today to schedule a consultation with one of our experienced criminal law attorneys.