

The undersigned parties agree as follows:

1. Slavery is banned in the territories of all parties. The inhabitants of villages have the right to determine whether to relocate from their homes.
2. The parties will prohibit the passage of ships engaging in slavery through their airspace and waters.
3. The parties agree that the Southern Sea is a slavery-free zone and to jointly resist any efforts to extend slavery to the basin and to surrounding village communities.
4. The parties agree to inspect any ships transiting through their territories which are suspected to be engaged in slavery and to return any slaves to their original home.
5. The parties agree that no party may withdraw from this treaty without the consent of all other parties.
