 - LEAF
 - Leaf's course is explicitly on improving the world - you could view it more as 'EA' or 'longtermism' rather than 'rationality'
 - Of course, it's a bit more complicated than that, and there will be a bunch of rationality/scout mindset content at Leaf's course
 - Another difference is perhaps that Leaf is interested in finding a way scalable high-quality way to do outreach. I don't know how much the other camps are looking to scale
 - Leaf is also different to SPARC and ESPR in that it's much newer
