

Complete the Sentences with phrases from the box:

enough, not enough, too much, too many

1. There is _____ traffic in my city.
2. There are _____ cars in my city.
3. There is _____ rain in my country.
4. There are _____ policemen in my city.
5. There are _____ teachers in my school.
6. There are _____ tourists in my country.
7. There are _____ people in my city.
8. There are _____ parks in my city.
9. There are _____ hospitals in my city.
10. There is _____ homework at my school.
11. There are _____ animals in my city.
12. There is _____ nature in my city.
13. There are _____ libraries in my city.
14. There is _____ music in my city.

Which nouns are countable? Which nouns are uncountable?

traffic, cars, rain, policemen, teachers, tourists, people, parks, hospitals, homework, animals, nature, libraries, music

Countable	Uncountable

When do we use "too much" ? When do we use "too many" ?

Classroom survey: Vote on the answers as a class. Write down the results. What do most people think for each one?

1. There is _____ traffic in my city.	too much	enough	not enough
2. There are _____ cars in my city.	too many	enough	not enough
3. There is _____ rain in my country.	too much	enough	not enough
4. There are _____ policemen in my city.	too many	enough	not enough
5. There are _____ teachers in my school.	too many	enough	not enough
6. There are _____ tourists in my country.	too many	enough	not enough
7. There are _____ people in my city.	too many	enough	not enough
8. There are _____ parks in my city.	too many	enough	not enough
9. There are _____ hospitals in my city.	too many	enough	not enough
10. There is _____ homework at my school.	too much	enough	not enough
11. There are _____ animals in my city.	too many	enough	not enough
12. There is _____ nature in my city.	too much	enough	not enough
13. There are _____ libraries in my city.	too many	enough	not enough
14. There is _____ music in my city.	too much	enough	not enough