

Location Prayer Walk

As you use this sample Campus Prayer Walk guide, let what you observe inspire your prayers.

There are many different ways to prayer walk a campus, and this guide is designed to be a "Grab and Go" template that works for anyone, regardless of how much access you have to the campus. Whether you are walking inside the school or only around its perimeter, let what you see guide your prayers.

You may also notice things to pray for that you wouldn't see if you were inside the campus—like sports fields, stadiums, the area where the marching band practices, or even the cars in the parking lot. Every sight can be a prompt to pray for the students, teachers, and community connected to that place.

Before you begin:

- Thank the Lord that He is with you.
- Praise the Lord for a few of His attributes. Praising Him helps us focus our eyes on Him, reminds us of who He is, and causes the enemy to flee.
- Do a quick heart check to make sure your heart is right with the Lord.
- Invite the Holy Spirit to guide you and help you see the things He wants you to pray about. As you walk and pray with your eyes open know that He will use the things you see and hear to prompt your prayers
- Pray for His protection over you and your prayer walk and for a spirit of unity

Tips:

- Know that silence is okay. When praying with others, silence can sometimes feel awkward, but it's important to take time to listen as the Holy Spirit guides you in what to pray.
- Remember, prayer is meant to be a dialogue, not a monologue. Be sure to listen and agree in prayer with the person you're praying with, rather than thinking about what to pray next. For example, if your friend starts praying over the lockers, take that opportunity to join them and spend time praying over the lockers together, instead of immediately jumping to pray for the cafeteria next.

Suggested guide:

Depending on the size of your group, consider dividing into smaller groups of 2-3 people. You can have each group start in different areas of the campus to cover more ground in prayer.

At each location:

- READ the verse.
- LOOK for things to pray for.
- PRAY as you are led.

Here are some suggested areas, ideas and scriptures to pray for. Let the Holy Spirit lead you and let the ideas spark different ways to pray.
