About This Kit

Because of the skills and time required to build these LEGO sets, and the sheer amount of pieces they include, they are intended for teens and adults and are NOT meant for children. These kits are intended to be built as presented. If you are looking for child-friendly LEGO, please book the regular LEGO kits.

You may have children asking to build these kits, but because much of what we do with LEGO is aimed at children's programming, please let patrons know that these are just for teens and adults so that the pieces stay together. They are time consuming kits and may require people to come back to continue building them.

It is very important that pieces for each kit stay together, and that they are kept track of as much as possible. It is YOUR responsibility to notify HQ if you notice a piece missing as you're building the kit.

Returning the Kit

Although it may seem tedious, we ask that you completely disassemble the kit before packing it up to return it. Pieces should be separated by colour, and the carrying cases are labelled to make cleanup easier for you.

Please be considerate when packing up this kit. If you were the next branch on the schedule, would you want to receive a half-built LEGO set that you have to take apart before patrons can use it?
