How do I pay for my item if I'm the winning bidder?

The system sends the winning bidder a receipt. Invoices display the items won, the winning bid amounts, and the total amount due.

How will I receive my item?

You will receive your item via mail. If you purchased one of our bigger ticket items, the WLA office will work with you to meet within a 50 mile radius of Seattle for delivery.

Is my donation tax deductible?

Anyone who makes a purchase, winning bid, or donation will automatically receive a receipt via email, and this will include the Washington Library Association's Tax ID number. You should consult a tax advisor to determine the deductibility of your contribution, although your deduction generally would be limited to the excess of your purchase price for an item over its fair market value.
