

Directions: Find your assigned row and then add a couple ideas on how you might utilize Google Documents in your classroom

#	Your Name	Your Ideas
1	Aloysius "I'm #1" Obiukwu	Collaborate on vocab lists creating sentences with new words
2	Susan Crooks	Working on FRQ's
3	Jermaine Brown	notes, essays, group activities
4	Jesse Huttenbrauck	Writing and editing essays. Sharing notes on literature. Group study with chat.
5	Eileen Mandell	Artist research, student shared critiques, shared assignment ideas, art vocab
6	Jason Martinez	Have Newcomers write essays in Google to share with EL Coordinators
7	Tracy Mueller	practice vocabulary with sentence writing
8	James McFarland	Create a google form to collect assignments
9	Judi Heitz	collaborative lab reports, collaborative presentations
10	Anne " Without a Tan " Paxton	essays, outlines, notes, editing, sharing, research, FUN! portfolio,
11	Shawn Wisley	I no longer have to collect "student information forms" at the beginning of the year, put them in a folder, then never really read them. I will have them complete a Form, then I can check out the compiled spreadsheet whenever I want!

12	 Tad Van Dyke	group research, artist research I AM A BEAUTIFUL MAN!
13	Jarrod Carman	essays, notes, research
14	Jeremy Hersch	Group work, organizing info, student info forms, sites, sharing
15	Michelle “Mayo” Ditomaso	Resume writing, interview q and a, group activities
16	Megan Vowles	create templates for students, peer review of docs w/ editing and comments...
17	Raul Campos	help students edit essays, give feedback on essays
18
19
20
21
22
23
24
25
26
27

28
29
30		