“So then, let us pursue what promotes peace and what builds up one another.” Romans 14:19.

This verse is the cornerstone of “Here to Serve”. Our campus is blessed with many wonderful student-focused ministries that seek to share the gospel with and disciple students. Each one has its own unique flavor or gift that separates it in some small manner from the others, but each share the same general calling. “Here to Serve” seeks to break down existing barriers between these ministries to better fulfill the calling we have in Romans 14 to pursue unity in the body of Christ. “Here to Serve” is one week of thoughtful prayer, heartful service, and public worship all aimed at promoting the heart of Christ towards our campus without brands, organizational, or denominational promotion. In order to accomplish this, “Here to Serve” is student-led and scripture-focused. Our hope in this, and past experiences as well, is that this week will serve as a springboard for more consistent partnership between ministries as they seek to serve our campus and community in the future.
