Skylanders: Ultimate Adventure Introduction

Greetings Portal Master, I am Eon and I have come to guide you on your ultimate journey, welcome to Skylands. What used to be a magical world of wonder and adventure has now become a world controlled by pure darkness and evil, otherwise known as Kaos who has destroyed the portal network and captured all the skylanders, the greatest heroes ever known, injecting them with pure darkness to help him control all of skylands, keeping the darkness growing stronger and the core of light being far from rebuilt. All hope might seem lost but apparently not.

“Spyro, come this way quickly. I must show you something.” An elder dragon told Spyro. “But Artisans is being attacked and I can’t let this happen to my homeworld,” Spyro said.” Look, There’s no way in a million years anyone would be able to defeat a three headed beast of a dragon like that. Normally I don’t request this, but due to the dire situation I have no other choice.” The doors open. “You must head through the portal and defeat whoever is on the other side.” “Why haven’t you told me about this earlier? I could have used this to defeat Ripto a lot sooner.” said Spyro. “ I was afraid you were not ready, Spyro, but after your last three adventures I feel like you now are ready. Go on, I have the feeling it’s going to be a lot easier than facing the dragon head on.” said the elder. Spyro walks into the portal, a difficulty prompt appears and when Spyro exits he hears a childish evil laugh.

At Skylanders Academy Kaos has apparently found the location of the constantly moving Skylanders Academy and was already watching his minions escorting Flynn, Cali, Hugo, Buzz, Mags, basically everyone who used to work alongside the Skylanders back in the day. Kaos has his giant floating castle there since this was the last piece of the puzzle Kaos needed for there to be no hope of him losing power, so why not show up to oversee the final deed of his minions. As everyone was being escorted on to one of Kaos' detainment ships Spyro exited threw a rift. Even though this Spyro looked very different from the Spyro everyone knew, no one seemed to notice and thought somehow a Skylander was here to save the day. Kaos was doing his evil childish laugh he was known for as everyone was being escorted when Spyro came out of the rift. When this happened it was like everything stopped. Everyone being escorted paused for a moment to see Spyro possibly save the day. When Kaos noticed he yelled "what! I thought I already captured all you stupid Skylameos already? Minions! attack the Skylander!" Spyro had no time to think where he was or be confused since he clearly was in another universe since by then minions of Kaos were already attacking him. Things seemed good for Spyro until Kaos brought out some of his most powerful minions yet which was where Spyro was defeated and got sent directly to Kaos' castle. Everyone being escorted entered the Ship to be sent to one of Kaos' detainment centers dedicated for heroes such as themselves.

Aboard the flying ship Hugo happens to see a guard with his tablet and a key in their back pockets. The guard approaches Hugo and Hugo takes his tablet and the key from them and hides it until the guards leave. Once done so Hugo unlocks himself and the player now has to control

Hugo up the ship without getting caught by the guards, since maybe there's a way to free everyone. After sneaking through a couple floors of the ship Hugo finds himself in a pitch black room. A light turns on revealing a computer Hugo might be able to hack with his tablet, once done so the walls of the room light up revealing 32 of the original Skylanders from Skylanders Spyro's Adventure captured on the wall. The player gets to select one of the Skylanders for Hugo to free, once freed alarms are blazing with red lights flashing as guards enter the room. The Skylander tries to defeat the guards but for some reason can't fight since the Skylander has lost all of its powers plus the portal network is down making it not possible for the player to control the Skylander. Once Hugo notices he runs to the side of the ship and opens the side cargo door. "Looks like there's one way off this ship, Skylander." The Skylander runs towards the open door and jumps off the ship followed by Hugo as all of the Trolls pile up by the open door screaming their gibberish language as Hugo and the Skylander are plummeting to the ground.

After they hit the ground they find that they have landed just outside a dying forest. A fairy comes out from behind a tree and says "Oh my, Is that a Skylander? I never thought I would ever get to see a Skylander again. Kaos' forces have taken over the forest and captured most of the fairies to use them for their magical powers. I saw a black and silver dragon who almost looks like Spyro snatching a bunch of fairies around here. Any way you can help us out?" Hugo replies, "I'd love to but first I need to speak with Phoebe to get the portal network online." "Alright, Good luck with that Hugo." Says the fairy. The player then controls Hugo to go find Phoebe.

Once found Phoebe says, “ Hey Hugo, ready to get some more work done on the portal network I assume. Hey wait, is that a skylander? What have you all been up to?” “ Oh, me and all my friends got captured by Kaos today but I was able to escape and I happened to find a Skylander, Isn’t that incredible.” “I’m sure master Eon would be proud of how far his little assistant has come.” Said Phoebe. She then opened a rift to take Hugo to the portal network. Hugo walks in the rift and gets to work. After a little bit of work Hugo says. “Hmmmmm, know what. Who needs portals to have a portal network?” “uh, isn’t that the point of the portal network though, like it’s literally in the name.” Said Phoebe. Hugo connects 2 wires that cause a lot of sparking for a second which then dies down. Hugo then exits the rift which closes behind him and says. “Alright skylander, let’s see if this works.” The player then tries to move the Skylander which works. Hugo reacts “Oh my god, it actually works!” Phoebe replies “After all this time, the portal network is finally in operation, to some form, congrats Hugo.” “Hey Skylander, try to attack that tree,” says Hugo. The Skylander can’t attack. “Huh that’s weird, must have lost your powers when you got captured by Kaos, Persephone should be able to help you.” said Hugo. “Yeah, about that, so Persephone kinda got captured by that dragon thing earlier but forgot to take her in her cage.” Said Phoebe. “What! hurry Skylander, we need to find Persephone and rescue her.” said Hugo.

The Skylander then goes to find Persephone. When Persephone is found she says. “ Hello extremely skylander! So much fun to finally see the Skylanders are back! Some evil dark dragon put me in this cage and hid the key. Can you find the key to help rescue me? Happy luck, great Skylander!” The Skylander then goes to find the key and unlocks Persephone from her cage, once done so she says “ Thank you so much great Skylander! Hugo was telling me that you must have lost your magical powers when Kaos captured you. I can help you. I can convert gold into magical upgrades for all Skylanders! Come come.” Persephone guides the skylander back to her home and says “Usually a Skylander comes equipped with their basic upgrades, but since you have lost your basic upgrades I will grant them to you for no additional cost.” Persephone grants the Skylander the upgrades and beams of magic come from the sky towards the Skylander. “You’re a real lifesaver Persephone, oh, Skylander now that you have your powers back you should go find and defeat that dragon everyone has been talking about.” Says Hugo.

The Skylander then leaves to go find the dragon. When the skylander heads to where they first landed the dragon flies in on a Sky Slicer vehicle and says “well well well if it isn’t those pesky creatures that have been helping out those fairies. I see you have somehow escaped from Lord Kaos. Well guess what? I’m gonna take you right back to him. You would be perfect for his loyal army.” The Skylander and Dark Spyro fight and the Skylander wins. The silver and black colors of Spyro fade away into his usual purple color palette. Spyro says “oh, where am I and who are you furry thing?” “First off I’m not a furry thing, I’m a Mabu and my name is Hugo. We are also in the Fairy Forest. Have you lost your memory or something, Spyro?” “I’ve never heard of a species called a Mabu in all of the dragon kingdom or a place called the Fairy Forest. This is really weird?” Said Spyro. “Oh! You must be from a different universe. I never knew there were multiple Spyros.” said Hugo. “Yeah, same. Hey, I just remembered. When I left the portal from Artisans I was at this weird stone building with this evil laughing kid, and I had to defeat his minions. Any idea who the kid was?” said Spyro. “Well that’s none other than Kaos. He has tried to take over Skylands, what is it, 7 times already and has only succeeded twice thus far but for some reason, he just won’t stop.” Said Hugo “Who names their kid Kaos? And that must be who was attacking Artisans. Said Spyro. “Wait, that must mean Kaos is attacking other worlds than Skylands, oh this is very very bad. Who knows what other worlds Kaos could be attacking right now.” Said Hugo. “I guess Kaos is little comfortable taking over Skylands so the kid is taking over other worlds.” Said Persephone. “I’m sure it will be okay Hugo, everything is going to be okay,” said Spyro. “We should head back to the Academy to make sure everything is okay there and plan what to do. Oh I really hope the Academy is in one piece after Kaos’ attack. Let’s go Spyro! I marked the last known location of the Academy on your map” Spyro hops in the Sky Slicer as Persephone and Hugo dearly hang on.

On the way Hugo says “Man I really wish we had Flynn and his ship with us.” “Yeah but his piloting skills really bad.” said Persephone. “Well at least he had a giant ship to stand on and hang out on, even if his rides were not that smooth.” said Hugo. When approaching the Academy Hugo says “There it is! Skylander Academy, I can’t believe it’s still in one piece, well barely but still!” Spyro lands the Sky Slicer and everyone gets off of it. Hugo then tells Spyro some objectives to do. “Okay so it would be really nice if we could go back to the ruins, where it all began to see how the core of light is doing so we can try to repair it and find all the ten elementals, although I’m sure Kaos has the area under strict guard so you might wanna go around and help some neighboring islands out, collect some more Skylanders to build up your collection. You might run into some familiar places and old friends along the way or maybe even a Legend Skylander, known to be the most powerful Skylanders to ever exist. Kaos captured all of them years ago in the big fight for the core of light. After what happened to Spyro I'm sure Kaos is using them as his army. Finally, this might sound crazy but maybe you can get captured by Kaos to free some of our friends. I don't know how to fly the Sky Slicer so you would have to first free Flynn or Sharpfin with their ships to return to the Academy. Flynn can help you travel anywhere you have already been while Sharpfin can have his Shark pit crew help upgrade your vehicles, although you will need a SuperCharger Skylander to upgrade them. So what are you waiting for, Portal Master! Let's go take back Skylands once and for all! It might take a long time, but every little bit counts!"

For the final final boss. I was thinking after kaos is defeated, fake credits roll where part way threw the darkness smashing their hand threw the top of kaos' castle and grabs the skylander from it, holding them close to their face giving them an evil villain speech then throws them into the ground. The darkness is giant and at the end of the battle sucks up all the darkness in the sky to regain all their health which depletes quickly since the skylander gets enraged. Not sure what type of hard to take this battle.
