

Becca Diskin serves as Program & Outreach Manager for the Missouri Scholarship & Loan Foundation (MSLF), where she supports the administration of scholarship, grant, internship, and interest-free loan programs that help Missouri students access and complete postsecondary education.

With more than 20 years of experience in higher education financial aid administration, Becca previously served as Director of Financial Aid at Missouri Southern State University and held leadership positions in financial aid at both Missouri Southern State University and Pittsburg State University. She also served as a Training & Sales Executive with USA Funds/Sallie Mae, providing guidance and training on student financial aid and loan programs.

A respected leader in the profession, Becca has held numerous leadership roles within the Missouri Association of Student Financial Aid Personnel (MASFAP), including President, Treasurer, and committee chair, and frequently presents at state and national conferences. She holds both a Bachelor of Business Administration and a Master of Business Administration from Pittsburg State University. Outside of her professional responsibilities, she enjoys traveling, running, hiking, reading mystery novels, and spending time with her husband and two sons.
