

Dear [name of friend].

Again the awesome period of Christmas has come! This is the time we actually wait for throughout the year. In the month of December, God sends abundance of everything and guide us to the path of happiness and fulfillment.

I find myself to be very lucky. It is because. I am born in a family where I have been given true Christian values and principles.

I am thankful towards you for the sacrifices you have done for me and my family.

Christmas period is really wonderful which is letting me to pour my love and affection for you. You really deserve all these things from me. I am writing this letter to you because God is encouraging me to do so.

I do find the whole city is lit up with happiness and excitement. There is lot of positivity in the atmosphere and that really gives joy to me.

And I want to share my joy with you. It is you who inspired me to see goodness in everything of life. Last time, I had spent Christmas with you and I enjoyed it to the fullest.

But this time, I would not be fortunate to join you in the Christmas party.

I do hope that you are enjoying the moments of decorating the Christmas tree along with your children as you were doing last year. May these beautiful moments come to you every year in your house?

I know that you are organizing grand Christmas party like every year, but I am sorry that it would not be possible from my side to come to your house this time. I will be on an official tour. I will not be even give enough time to my family during Christmas. But next year, I will try my best to join you in the party along with my family members.

I wish you Merry Christmas and Happy New Year ahead!

With Love and Regards

From
