

StoryCorps Reflection Questions

Listen to the StoryCorps interview. After listening, answer the questions. When you are finished, we will discuss the questions.

Explain both of the stories you heard on StoryCorps. What were they about?

How did the podcasts start?

What were the introductions like?

Did the two people know each other?

Was there a theme?

How did the interview start?

Did the interviewer ask a lot of questions?

How did conversation start?

How did conversation continue?

Were there lots of silences?

What other things besides talking are included in the podcast?

Do these interviews leave you wanting to know more about the situation?

Is there a friend or family member you would like to ask about a certain event? Explain.

What is a topic you would like to talk to someone about?