

IT IS 2021 I AM LITERALLY BEGGING YOU GUYS TO STOP GIVING MARGARET ATTENTION. stop quote retweeting her, stop “adding onto the shit she’s done,” you all know she’s a horrible person so stop giving her attention. you are doing nothing but exposing more people to the things she does and for what, fun?

just fucking ignore her, i don’t care if she comes after you or whatever she is literally just some freak on the internet and arguing with her does nothing, why do you think she still pulls shit like this after over two years? there are better things to do than expose yourself and others to her constant stream of bullshit.

i’m leaving this callout here to be accessible for those who don’t know or need to inform someone of things margaret has done, but stop trying to add to the list as if she hasn’t already exposed herself as every kind of freak and bigot under the sun. you don’t need more proof and you don’t need to keep looking for more tweets. callouts are for keeping people safe from freaks, not to encourage them to make other people have to see the person on their timeline constantly just because you want some fun drama. you’re just enabling harm to other people if not outright causing it yourselves.

Like.... you think trying to make me feel mad about loving Goro is going to work??? Nah, it just proves to me you got no actual dirt on me. Die mad, bitch.

ok , so , this annoying back and forth has gone on long enough . this is a callout for margaret / @featherrwbyrnjr on twitter (formerly @dustsommelier) for a mountain of shit from the past couple months . she likes to claim that we have no dirt on her , so here is her well deserved callout with all of it .
edit : she's @shuakebullshit now lol topics that will be covered this callout : pedophilia / sexualization of minors + high schoolers , adoptive incest , stalking + harassment , transphobia , homophobia , racism + antiblackness , and using autism as an excuse for one's actions* , and ableism .

* i feel that i should note that i am also autistic myself , and her being called out for this is not ableist .

other content warnings : nsfw , mentions of zoophilia , r slur (but not directly said) , guilt tripping , and suicide .

01 . PEDOPHILIA / SEXUALIZATION OF MINORS + HIGH SCHOOLERS .

so , for a bit of background : i (paz) first pointed out margaret in either june or july , when she retweeted a post of mine and i saw in her bio that she self ships with goro akechi* , and is 20 years old . due to my previous experiences with 20+ people in the persona fandom who sexualize high schoolers , i decided to glance at her account , and sure enough , there were nsfw tweets about goro .

* for those who don't know , goro akechi is a character from persona 5 who is a third year in high school , and 17-18 during the game's events . while he is ' legal , ' as margaret continuously says , he is still in high school , so ask yourself if you think a 20 year old dating a high schooler who just turned 18 raises a few questions .

here are some of the tweets with margaret sexualizing goro , including some retweets . (i'm opting to put them in an imgur album so not to clog up the doc .)

she tries to defend this with various excuses , so i will address each one of them here .

saying that goro was born in '98 , and is therefore older than her .

fictional characters do not age with you . say you watched an old anime , with some kids who were born in the late 90s / early 2000s . they'd be adults in real time , but would you sexualize them when they were children in the anime you watched ? if you had any common sense , no , you would not . also , spoilers for persona 5 ahead , but goro is literally dead in canon . dead people don't age . but dead or not , he is still a fictional character , who does not age with you . he has never been shown older than 18 in canon , therefore he has NEVER been older than 18 .

saying that goro is 18 and therefore an adult , so him being in high school doesn't matter.

this is a good example of people not realizing that fiction impacts reality . waiting until a kid is ' legal ' is a common grooming tactic , and also an excuse predators use to take advantage of teens who are only just being introduced to adulthood , and are not on the same maturity level as the predator . am i saying that margaret acts this way in real life ? no . but , i am saying that with that being a problem in real life , if people see you acting that way in regards to fictional characters , it does impact their perspective . fiction affects reality , this has been proven time and time again , and with this reasoning being a common one among real predators , i believe it's safe to say why it's a problem .

saying that she ' ages herself down ' to ship herself with goro .

man i don't even know what to say to this one , i've heard aging kids up for nsfw content (which , guess what , is also bad .) but this is just wild . also , by saying she does this , she acknowledged that shipping herself with him when she's a literal 20 year old is questionable , so i don't think i need to say anything about it .

now , say that you believe margaret's excuses about him being legal and such . what that doesn't excuse is the various times she's sexualized akiren , the protagonist of persona 5 who is 16-17 . those tweets are here .

she also has a lot of nsfw content of goro and akiren in her ao3 bookmarks , and there is also a screenshot of a nsfw goro / reader fic that she wrote . and here's her attempts to justify her behavior / avoid the subject . just because you don't ship what you bookmarked nsfw content of doesn't make it okay at all , it's still nsfw content of that ship between two high schoolers , one being a minor still . and also , not being sexually attracted to the minor you make nsfw jokes of (and yeah , i'd definitely hope you aren't sexually attracted to him , lol) doesn't change the fact that you're making nsfw jokes about a minor .

also , something a bit ironic is that she refers to me and my friends my age as ' teens ' and ' babies , ' when we're the same age as the characters she sexualizes .

update : oh , and for those saying ' but 20 and 18 is only a 2 year age gap , she doesn't need to stop self shipping with him yet , ' she doesn't plan to stop .

spookums 🍊 @ rwby7 & p5r spoilers 18 @featherrwbyrnjr · 2h

I'm not sure if she realizes, but I loved Goro like I do now when I was 18, so it's not like I'm going to give up on loving Goro just cause I'm 21. He's a passion of mine and I'm autistic. There is no ulterior motive behind my love for him. Period.

02 . ADOPTIVE INCEST .

now , you can try to say this isn't exactly worth putting in the callout , but i'm going to put this here anyway because the way this was treated bothered the hell out of me .

context : margaret ships shutaba , which is akiren and futaba sakura , the adoptive daughter of akiren's temporary guardian , sojiro sakura . in akiren's confidant with sojiro , sojiro comes to see him as family , and he is essentially a father figure to akiren during the game . while he does not adopt akiren , it's still a blatant found family trope , so to ship him with his pseudo little sister is extremely uncomfortable .

also , in regards to being called out for shipping shutaba , margaret said this :

spookums 🍊 @ rwby7 & p5r spoilers @featherrwbyrnjr · Oct 11

Teen is now saying that shutaba is incest cause "they share the same parental figure" FUTABA ISNT EVEN BLOOD RELATED TO SOJIRO JUST SAY YOU SENSELY HATE THE SHIP AND SHUT UP 🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔🤔

futaba is sojiro's adoptive daughter . the fact that they aren't blood related isn't a valid point at all , adoptive incest is still bad . it'd be one thing if she tried to say that akiren isn't related to or adopted by sojiro (which like i said above is still weird for several reasons , but i digress) but instead chose to say that sojiro and his adoptive daughter aren't blood related , which she feels makes it fine .

also , a point i feel i should address because she often tries to call people disliking shutaba infantilization : the one thing she has right is that people calling futaba (who is autistic coded) a child in comparison to ren is bad . they do only have a one year age gap . however , this doesn't change the fact that the ship has all the uncomfortable undertones mentioned above .

following me and my girlfriend , nami (previously named lavenza) , calling out margaret for sexualizing goro and such , she namedropped us . i don't have screencaps of the first time she namedropped us , but there are these times . also , at one point she and her followers mass reported nami , getting him suspended TWICE (which she bragged about) and has also admitted to stalking nami on multiple occasions (sometimes me as well) . even better is that she didn't bother to learn nami's name , and simply called him ' the 17 y/o . ' because stalking a minor and proudly admitting it is a great look . here's some more of her harassment towards us as well , including her threatening to call us both the r slur . it's not just us though , she has a whole thread screenshotting people's accounts and shittalking them . (i simply linked it since it's kinda long to screenshot , here it is archived in case she deletes it .)

also , come context for a couple of the stalking screenshots : after margaret changed her handle from dustsommelier to featherrwbyrnjr , nami changed the handle on one of her private twitters to dustsommelier , because margaret had not saved it . margaret claimed this was harassment , and that nami stole her handle (though even now , she hasn't bothered to save the dustsommelier handle again ; it is still completely unused .) and was impersonating and harassing her . nami did not claim to be margaret , nor did he harass her with the account he saved the handle on , because it was one of his private accounts and was simply taken as a joke , something margaret is fully capable of doing herself to any of our past handles . margaret's obsession with nami got so out of hand and creepy that nami had to change her bio to this before margaret finally backed off .

on the topic of harassment again , much more recently , margaret began to check up on my account after i unlocked . (my twitter is usually locked .) she proceeded to falsely accuse me of being a zoophile , as well as being into other gross things . her reason was me and my friend group making omegaverse jokes . she also accused us of being into mpreg because we've joked about it , but as trans men , men who can get pregnant , we're allowed to joke about that . as a cis woman , she has no say in a matter like that , but decided to say this anyway :

knew my pronouns, you continued to use the wrong pronouns for me. you continued to degrade me by using the wrong pronouns. and you continued to excuse it rather than apologizing because.. you want sympathy? attention, maybe? because you've got the latter at least.

despite blocking me, you evidently continued to lurk my account to take screenshots of my tweets. or maybe you got someone to do it for you. i don't know, nor do i give a fire fuck. i will not go as far as saying you stalked me (because unlike you, i don't throw that word around loosely) but lurking on people's accounts for days when they've clearly moved on... no words chile... no words...

and now we're back to me , paz . i already addressed this briefly in the last section , but i want it here as well ; me and three of my friends , all of us trans men , made mpreg jokes in a server together . as the four of us are trans men , we are allowed to make mpreg jokes , and a cis person has no say in that matter . however , margaret tried to tell us we were gross for making these jokes , and compared me saying that we're trans to her using her autism as an excuse for her actions in the past , which is disgustingly transphobic . also , one mpreg-related thing she was mad about was nami drawing a male character (ramuda amemura from hypmic) pregnant , to which margaret said this :

all of us in our friend group headcanon ramuda as trans , and while we don't expect her to know that , it's transphobic to immediately assume the character drawn was cis . and even if he was : trans men are still allowed to make mpreg jokes . margaret , as a cis woman , has absolutely no say in the matter .

for the past couple months , margaret has publicly talked about her distaste for shuake (goro / akiren) and its shippers . while you're entitled to not like a ship , many of the things she's said about it have been outright homophobic . (some of these screenshots were in an earlier folder as well , but have relevance here .) there's a very wide consensus that goro is gay , because he is heavily gay coded (though of course , probably not intentionally , atlus being how they are) but as i mentioned before , margaret ships herself with him . in response to people being upset that she publicly bashed shuake + people seeing goro as gay , she said goro is hetero , and would constantly go on tangents about no one ' owning ' goro . despite the fact that she saw fit to proclaim he's straight , she gets mad if she sees anyone say he's gay ; despite the fact that she constantly talks shit about shuake shippers on her public account , she gets mad if anyone says they don't like to see goro shipped with women . her hypocrisy goes on and on . she even goes as far as to say that shuake shippers are why certain fans hate goro , and that shuake shippers don't actually care about goro as a character , and reduce him to just his sexuality . considering a large amount of shuake shippers are usually not straight themselves , this generalization comes off as very nasty from someone who claims she sees goro as hetero .

she never provides any examples either , just goes on and on about how shuake shippers ' mistreat goro . ' she even says that shuake shippers make goro into a ' bimbo , ' ' slut , ' or ' whore , ' and says that they make him ' start sucking [akiren's] dick the moment they meet . ' these are all harmful stereotypes of gay men . she can claim she's not homophobic due to her bisexuality all she wants , but it doesn't change her gross behavior towards gay men in the way she talks about ' shuake!goro . ' also , to add to her homophobia : in the 3rd to last screenshot she makes a comment about how you can be lgbt and still fetishize other lgbt identities . while there is not a problem with the point itself , she goes on to say that ' it seems like a lot of lesbians fetishize gay guys in fiction . ' margaret is a bi woman , this is not something she has the authority to make such a generalized statement on . i also find it very telling that she wouldn't address that bi women can do this as well , likely because then she'd also have to hold herself accountable -- something she clearly doesn't like doing . also , margaret goes on to say that she feels that only gay men should discuss whether a character is a twink or a bottom . not only does this exclude bi men from the discussion , but margaret talks as though she has any authority to talk about issues that affect gay men . also , she compares how she feels about only gay men using twink or bottom to how the n word should ' only be used by poc . ' there's so , so many reasons that this is racist , but it'll be in the next section .

oh , and on the harassment topic again : despite having the whole ' block me if you don't like it ' attitude , this is how she acts when people who don't like her shitty attitude block her :

margaret has said racist things and even been racist towards me and others on occasion . margaret is white , and has assumed me and nami are white . (or in nami's case , she at the very least assumed he isn't black) it's not a white person's place to try to assume other people are white , and regardless , she should have bothered to check before putting her foot in her mouth ; we both have our races in our carrrds . yesterday (i'm writing this on 10/22/19) , margaret was checking up on my account repeatedly , and digging for any ' dirt ' she could find on me . (see the false accusations of zoophilia from earlier) after she called me white , i demanded an apology for it , since as a white-passing poc i am already often discarded . i doubt that there's any way she didn't see it , and as seen in previous points , she's avoided apologizing by doing things like saying ' but i'm autistic ' as an excuse rather than addressing what she did wrong . here is me demanding an apology + her avoiding and choosing to joke about the issue rather than apologize .

in her first post about it , instead of caring about learning of and apologizing for her racism , she brushed over the issue , joking about how her boomer mom is racist and she isn't . as a white person , she needs to hold herself accountable for things , rather than dismissing accusations of racism because she's not a trump supporter . speaking of not holding herself accountable , she goes on to say that she thinks what i called her racist for is her saying that the n word can be used by all poc and not just black people . (while this is racist , it's not what i was referring to . also , the screenshot of that is above in the homophobia folder .) she then says that she feels people should ' educate her first and get mad second . ' margaret is not entitled to poc educating her when she can work to unlearn racism and antiblackness herself , but she clearly refuses to do so . not to mention that when lena told her that what she said was racist , she called him ableist . margaret still hasn't even apologized for saying the n word can be used by all poc , simply keeps talking about how she feels that people should be educating her instead of getting mad .

also , margaret has used aave and , of course , dodged the issue when being called out on it rather than apologizing . time and time again , she opts to attempt to excuse her behavior rather than acknowledging it's wrong + learning from it -- and yet she still feels entitled to poc educating her about her racism .

07 . USING AUTISM AS AN EXCUSE .

most of this has been addressed in previous points , but it deserves its own section anyway : margaret has repeatedly used her autism as an excuse for her behavior to avoid apologizing for things . what she doesn't like acknowledging is when other autistic people call her out for this , because she tries to claim anyone who does is ableist . she goes as far as to say that anyone who accuses someone of using autism as an excuse is ableist and neurotypical . also , as mentioned earlier , she compared me saying that we're allowed to make jokes about mpreg because we're trans men to when i called her out for using autism as an excuse for her transphobia . (ironic how by doing this she was just transphobic yet again .)

there was also a point when margaret had a meltdown over a shuake shipper blocking her on mercari , and she began to guilt trip people , going as far as to say that she ' hopes shuakes are happy ' because she felt like killing herself . it is NEVER okay to guilt trip like this , especially publicly . having a meltdown does not excuse it in the slightest . i say this as someone with autism who has bad meltdowns myself , and i also have several mental illnesses that , if not kept in check , can cause me to exhibit manipulative / guilt trippy behavior . with any mental illness or disability , you have to have a level of self discipline . margaret did not apologize for her behavior , only tried to excuse it by saying she was having a meltdown . this sort of behavior is disgusting , and it is not ableist for people to get called out on it .

UPDATE : 08 . ABLEISM .

well ! a couple hours after this callout has been posted , margaret has found it , and has been calling me insane . she justifies this by saying that she can't be ableist because she's autistic , and that she'd never call someone insane if it wasn't true . and so now we have ableism added to the list ! just a note : calling anyone insane is fucked up , but i happen to be psychotic , so it's even better !

update : my demands for an apology for calling me insane and being racist towards me were heard , and this was margaret's response :

Anyways, it's really fucking stupid to make others feel shitty and then get mad when they wont stop talking about how shitty of a person you are. Like, boohoo cry me a river.

so i don't really care if ' the goro stuff makes no sense ' or any other reasons you have to ignore the content of this callout . margaret is unapologetic in her bigotry , which is just as prevalent as her self shipping / sexualization of goro , so i don't want to hear any excuses for her .

CONCLUSION .

margaret has gotten away with her disgusting behavior time and time again because she has tried to reduce everyone's problems with her to ship drama , and calls anyone who calls out her behavior ableist . in the past couple days her followers have been harassing me on anon , fatshaming me , calling me slurs , and saying that i'm worthless . i've had enough of this ridiculous shit , so margaret is finally getting the callout she deserves . if you still believe her stupid excuses for her behavior after seeing all of this , that's on you .

i've been getting asked questions in regards to this callout , so i may add a faq of sorts later , if it becomes repetitive . that's all for now , i got the answer i was waiting on .

UPDATE : 4/13/2020 . DISGUSTING FALSE ACCUSATIONS .

HUGE warnings for pedophilia and rape . there are screenshots of margaret making sexual comments towards a minor and calling the same minor a rapist . tread lightly if you need .

so ! i was going to leave this callout as it was , and for a long time i did . but today margaret crossed way too far over the fucking line .

nami (previously named lavenza as he was mentioned in the callout before) was 17 when this callout was written , and is 18 now . basically everyone knows its age , and so does margaret . in caps shown earlier in this callout she referred to nami as ' the 17 y/o ' a lot , and more recently , here's more proof of margaret knowing how old nami is .

now , despite all this ... margaret's friend monty posted a tweet claiming i was dating a 15 year old because he mixed nami up with a 15 year old that margaret was attacking . he's since deleted the tweet , but spent an hour or so insisting that everyone who showed him proof of nami's age was gaslighting him , and that his age was ' suspicious ' despite its pinned tweet with his age being over a week old , me pulling out discord dms where he talked about turning 18 last year , etc . even when realizing he was wrong he refused to apologize or anything of the sort , and had this wonderful excuse for it :

and the reason this is in this callout now is because DESPITE margaret knowing all this , she supported monty's lies about me , probably just to ' get back at me ' for calling her a pedophile . oh , and her calling nami my ' psycho lover ' is just some more of her wonderful ableism !

and speaking of her pedophilia again , she was making sexual comments towards acair , the 15 year old she mistook for nami . she also called it a rapist and acted proud of herself when he was triggered by it . this is probably the most heinous shit she's done by far , this update was actually sickening to make but it's important that people know .

i know we've all had fun and made jokes about her because we all know she's a piece of shit , but she's gone way too far . please just avoid her and report her if you can , and please remember to stay safe , especially if you're a minor . there is no point with arguing with someone like her , especially when she's been doing this for almost a year now .

hello , im celestine and i wanted to add onto this doc as someone who's had experiences with margaret. Ill be quick with this.

There are a number of things margaret has done to me and i have done to her and i could create an entire document speaking about her and about how we stalked each other and she made an alt account just to join a shuake server i created (both of us made bad decisions in this entire situation and i am admitting that now), however i want to shed more light on more recent events.

Everyone knows at this point that margaret has a new @, and she uses that account to speak to everyone now about shuake and stuff. I attempted to confront her calmly at one point about my actions in the past and her actions at the moment, but she brushed it off as "half-assed, sucking up to her, and bootlicking." she blocked me from there, and next morning i received anons about margaret, bringing in accusations that i myself am unsure whether they are true or not. Margaret proceeded to unblock me just to comment on the anon on my twitter. Shes already repeatedly blocked and unblocked me before, so i was fed up and blocked her myself.

After that, i started to receive more anons all about margaret. I admit that on my part, i shouldnt have given these anons a platform to speak because it only worsened the situation and made things more tense. It had gotten to a point where people wrote "joke fanfics" about margaret. Screenshots are provided.

I hadn't realized at first it was Margaret who wrote this, because I wasn't checking her account at the time. An anon copied and pasted it into my inbox and I had assumed some random anon was coming into my inbox to purposely trigger me, hence why I reacted very violently. But once I realized it was Margaret who wrote it, I retracted my statement. I made a tweet saying "I'm allowed to show up to anon's door with a bat," which I understand was very wrong on my part. I replied to the tweet once realizing it was, and I apologized to anon. I admit I should have been more verbal about me taking back that statement, but my intentions with that reply was to take it back. Anyways, because of this behavior, I eventually received an anon claiming they know where Margaret works and would be letting her co-workers know about her behavior.

I'm not going to deny that I at first encouraged this behavior, which was stupid on my part and very wrong. I already tried apologizing to Margaret about my encouragement of what happened, but she played off my apology as "lies and gaslight." I made two threads explaining that I'm aware my behavior wasn't right, but once again, it was nothing but gaslight and lies to her. Threads can be found below.

(rape, sexual assault, and grooming tw)

While the whole "report Margaret to her job" was horrible, what she had said was terrible as well. I myself, am a victim to grooming and sexual assault, so what she had said angered me. Though I don't have the screenshot, I made a tweet saying, "in this house, we beat up people who have no respect for victims of rape, sexual assault, grooming, and anything similar." I know that seems aggressive, however it was a tweet I made in the heat of the moment. I, as a victim, had all the right to be angry with her. But she made a tweet replying

Margaret believed her behavior was justified throughout the whole thing, and claimed she could be "nastier." It's very clear she has no care for victims and survivors, proven by this, what happened to Acair, as well as another incident I'll bring up now. This will be the last one.

During the chaotic day with anons threatening to report margaret, monty stepped in and sent me a few asks. Im bringing up this ask because it's most relevant at the moment.

https://curiouscat.me/black_rcse/post/1072527855

I had told monty myself that im a victim in this ask, and that i had the right to be angry. With what i am about to show you, margaret said that she and monty had merely forgotten.

However, forgotten or not, the thought of saying this alone about a 16 year old should already be a no from the start. It triggered a mental breakdown for me when i had seen it, and i brought that up. I demanded an apology but none was given to me. Only excuses and insults, as well as telling me that "i lost." screenshot of what was said is below. The tweet was originally made by monty. tw for mentions of non con.

I think that's all i can provide for what happened. Please report and block her and her friends for the sake of your own mental health, and warn others about her. She's been keeping this drama up for far too long.

That's all from me. Stay safe!!!!

UPDATE

margaret posted a thread on her twitter basically "exposing me" even though there were things on there i already admitted to doing. I'll provide the link here because i don't want her to believe I'm playing innocent. I acknowledge the fact that there were many things i did during this drama that weren't okay; however most of this happened when i was 15. Most of the events that occurred during this thread happened from mostly in February. I do know better now, and i would like to avoid repeating the things that occurred again.

- First screenshot

I already addressed the first screenshot above in the document.

- Second screenshot

I'm close friends with Nate, and i can confirm right now that he, in no way, meant to brag about know margaret's location at all. That screenshot is taken completely out of context as well. Nate had intended to imply he can report her, proven by the screenshot here. This was said only minutes after.

Nate wasn't going out of his way to search for the location either. Thankfully, Margaret does admit she's ordered items from him before.

Ive seen so many people be screenshotted and vagued, my name coming out of her..... hands? is the only thing that bothers me most abt
what shes done to me

But

I wont tolerate her stalking my friends

And i hope she figures out i could Literally report her for harassment to an. Actual authority

if u could then why dont u,, Akaashi 02/14/2020

bc im. Not in america and i dont have money.

- Third screenshot and fourth screenshot

I have already admitted that I stalked Margaret in the past and said, "the key is to take screenshots 24/7". I understand it was wrong to provoke and stalk her. The screenshot i provided where i gave that caption was a screenshot margaret posted of someone leaking an announcement i made about margaret to warn the members of the server about her.

TW for shuake, homophobia, abuse, lesbophobia, incest, and ableism.

@everyone Okay, I'll try and make this quick. There is a twitter user @featherrwbyrnjr who has been around for a while as far as I'm aware. She's been harassing people who find comfort in Akechi x Akira, and has shown clear signs of LGBTphobia, ableism, and is also supportive of Futaba x Akira, and claims it is in no way incest. She claims Shuake is an abusive ship, and anyone who ships Shuake is an abuser including minorities. She's 20 years old, and is mission impossible to confront. If you try to confront her, she will block you after responding once. She's incredibly ableist towards people with

- Fifth screenshot

I don't have much input. I should have known better than to celebrate her locking, and she's allowed to lock her account for whatever reason whenever. What I won't understand though is if she truly felt like she was being threatened, then why did she continue to unlock and put herself out there where she knew most people disagreed with her.

- Sixth screenshot

I don't know why she thought I was "twisted over someone being of age". The person who said is 17 is my friend, we were joking around and speaking. Even if what I said to them seemed aggressive, my friends and I always playfully make fun of each other. But that wasn't what was happening. It was a discussion. I have no input over the maturity part, other than both Margaret and I have made mistakes. I don't like to claim immature, and I'm surprised at myself for even saying that because I honestly can never see myself saying things like that. However, I don't want to make claims or anything like that. I do retract that statement now.

- Seventh screenshot

Once again, I know I stalked her and I shouldn't have. I apologize.

- Next few screenshots claiming "wanna laugh at her tweets"

As I've said already, I was being extremely immature many times throughout this drama, so I apologize for my behavior there. It wasn't right of me to simply take and pick fun just because I was bored.

- Fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth screenshots

I am 100 percent guilty of my words stated here. At the time, I was being petty and wanted an excuse to hate on Margaret for unnecessary reasons. I didn't mean to come off as a transphobe or transmed, as I do want to encourage anyone questioning their identity and want to validate everyone's dysphoria. I was being incredibly stupid in this moment, so I am sorry for my words here. I admit guilt for this moment. Please keep in mind I'm still young, so I'm bound to make mistakes like this. I'm still learning a lot about LGBT and I still have much more to learn.

- Seventeenth and eighteenth screenshot

I have no input on this one. I'm still strongly against Shutaba.

- Nineteenth screenshot

Also no input. I wasn't the one who brought this subject up.

- Twentieth and Twenty first screenshot

Once again, no input. Margaret doesn't have the right to speak on this matter though as a white person. It's a controversial topic, but that isn't the point of this document. That's all.

Most of the screenshots are just proof that I was stalking her in the past, which I already admit to and have accepted responsibility for. I'll mention the more important ones and explain them myself.

- Nate told us her private and we all blocked. We wanted to be safe.
- The excuse of "well other shuakes broke into my server therefore I'm allowed to break into the server of a kid who never did that to me" isn't good. Own up to your guilt on that part, Margaret. I had never "broke into your server" nor would I ever do so. You justified your actions because someone else did it to you.
- ADHD is different for everyone. One of the things it does for me is make me have very poor memory. I wasn't giving some excuse, I was TRYING to say "I probably did vague her but I don't remember because ADHD messes with my memory."
- From what I remember, Nate hadn't said anything racist. He just didn't want his words to be taken out of context, thus deleted his message. We all knew at the time Margaret had access to the server.
- I wasn't trying to say she was in love with Akechi just because he's a high schooler. It's still creepy for her, a 21 year old, to ship herself with a high schooler though.
- We assumed someone was leaking screenshots in another server we were in, hence why we approached someone rather aggressively. But there was no witch hunt or anything, though I admit the situation could have been handled better.

I have nothing more to say. I hope this clears up everything. Stay safe gang ♡
