Cost Factors

The cost of cannabis products can vary based on several important factors. Product type is often one of the largest influences on pricing, as flower, cannabis edibles, vapes, concentrates, and CBD products may have different price ranges. Customers looking for Premium cannabis or premium cannabis products may notice pricing differences based on cultivation methods, production standards, and overall product quality.

Potency is another factor that can affect cost. Products with higher THC or CBD concentrations may be priced differently depending on their formulation and intended use. Brand reputation also contributes to pricing, with established producers often commanding higher prices due to consistency and product development.

Quantity purchased can impact overall value, as larger purchases may reduce the cost per unit while increasing the total purchase amount. Customers can also ask about featured promotions and special offers that may provide additional savings opportunities.

Is Cannabis Legal in Mississauga?

Yes. Recreational cannabis is legal in Ontario for adults aged 19 and older. Licensed retailers such as The Woods Cannabis operate under provincial regulations governing product sales, labeling, age verification, and retail operations.

Customers must present valid identification before purchasing cannabis products and comply with applicable Ontario cannabis regulations.
