

Kingdom Builders recognizes that all people are created equal, in the image of God, each with inimitable characteristics deserving of dignity (Genesis: 1:27).

“The equality of men rests essentially on their dignity as persons and the rights that flow from it: Every form of social or cultural discrimination in fundamental personal rights on the grounds of sex, race, color, social conditions, language, or religion must be curbed and eradicated as incompatible with God’s design.” Catechism of the Catholic Church #1935

Catholic teaching urges us to welcome authentic diversity and impels us to work for equity and justice, and so we seek to build inclusion, belonging, affinity and connection. We believe that God designed each one of His daughters beautiful and unique. All are welcome within His Church, and all are invited to build His Kingdom.

Kingdom Builders honors the tenants of our faith and recognizes that any form of social or cultural discrimination is incompatible with Catholic moral principles. We will not tolerate discrimination, biases, harassment, or bullying of any kind.

In accordance with the Church’s teachings, it is the policy of Kingdom Builders to provide in all its operations and employment an environment which supports and enables diversity. We recognize and help to foster the diversity of gifts, skills and perspectives that can serve the mission of Kingdom Builders.
