

DRAFT Holistic Rubric for Scorers of ELO 6.3

6.3 Students will ethically and effectively create and use diverse forms of information.
4—Exceeds Expectations	3—Meets Expectations	2—Near Expectations	1—Below Expectations
• Demonstrates exceptional skill in creating and using diverse forms of information, employing a wide range of mediums (e.g., written, visual, digital) effectively and creatively to convey complex ideas. • Exhibits a strong commitment to ethical practices in information creation and usage, including proper citation, respect for intellectual property, and adherence to relevant ethical guidelines across disciplines.	• Demonstrates a solid ability to create and use diverse forms of information, effectively utilizing several mediums (e.g., written, visual, digital) to convey ideas and arguments, though some aspects may lack depth or creativity. • Exhibits a good understanding of ethical practices in information creation and usage, typically including proper citation and respect for intellectual property, though minor lapses may occur.	• Demonstrates a basic ability to create and use diverse forms of information, but may rely on limited mediums or show inconsistency in effectiveness, resulting in unclear or simplistic presentations. • Shows minimal understanding of ethical practices in information creation and usage, with occasional issues in citation or respect for intellectual property that may undermine credibility.	• Demonstrates little to no ability to create and use diverse forms of information, often relying on irrelevant or inappropriate mediums that fail to convey ideas effectively. • Lacks understanding of ethical practices in information creation and usage, frequently neglecting proper citation and showing disregard for intellectual property, which severely impacts credibility.