M.E.G.A. X Triumph Collective

PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: September 18, 2026

M.E.G.A. X Triumph Collective (“we,” “us,” or “our”) respects your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, store, and protect information when you visit our website, submit a form, purchase a product, or use our educational programs and services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect information you voluntarily provide, including your name, email address, phone number, information about the student or learner you are contacting us about, service or program interests, questions or messages, and information submitted through registration, enrollment, contact, or other forms.

We may also collect limited technical information when you use our website, such as browser type, device information, approximate location, pages visited, and website usage information, depending on the technology and third-party services used on the site.

2. Payment Information

Payments may be processed through third-party payment providers such as PayPal. When you make a payment, the payment provider may collect and process information necessary to complete the transaction, such as your name, email address, transaction amount, and payment-related information.

We do not intentionally store your full credit card or bank account information on our website. Payment information is handled by the applicable payment processor according to its own privacy practices.

3. How We Use Information

We may use information we collect to respond to inquiries; provide, administer, and improve educational services; process registrations and payments; deliver digital products and resources; communicate about programs, services, schedules, and account-related matters; maintain records; improve our website and services; and comply with legal or contractual obligations.

4. Student Information

When a parent, caregiver, educator, school, or organization provides information about a student, we use that information only as reasonably necessary to provide the requested educational or support service, communicate with the appropriate adult or organization, maintain program records, and support the learner.

We do not sell student information.

5. Information About Children

Our services may involve K–12 students, including children under 13. Parents, guardians, schools, or other authorized adults should provide information about a child when appropriate. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children for purposes unrelated to providing or supporting the requested service.

If you believe a child has provided personal information to us without appropriate authorization, please contact us so we can review the situation and take appropriate action.

6. Cookies and Website Technology

Our website or third-party services may use cookies, pixels, analytics tools, or similar technologies to support website functionality, understand website usage, improve services, or provide relevant features. The specific technologies used may change as our website and services develop.

7. Third-Party Services

Our website and services may use third-party platforms to operate, communicate, process payments, store information, deliver resources, or provide other functionality. These services may include:

Google Services — We may use Google Sites, Google Forms, Google Sheets, and Google Drive to host website content, collect contact or enrollment information, organize responses, and store or deliver educational resources. Information submitted through Google Forms may be stored in connected Google services such as Google Sheets. Google processes information according to its own privacy policies.

PayPal — We may use PayPal to process payments and recurring membership transactions. PayPal may process information needed to complete transactions and maintain payment records according to its own privacy practices.

Other Platforms — As our business grows, we may use additional third-party services for email communications, scheduling, video conferencing, educational delivery, analytics, customer support, or digital product delivery. These providers may process information according to their own privacy policies.

We do not sell your personal information to third parties.

8. How We Protect Information

We take reasonable administrative, technical, and organizational measures designed to protect personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, no website, online service, or method of electronic transmission can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

9. How Long We Keep Information

We retain information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide services, maintain business and transaction records, respond to inquiries, meet legal or accounting requirements, resolve disputes, and enforce agreements. Retention periods may vary depending on the type of information and the reason it was collected.

10. Your Choices

You may contact us to ask questions about information you have provided, request correction of inaccurate information, or ask about how your information is being used. Certain information may need to be retained when required for legal, accounting, security, or legitimate business purposes.

11. Marketing Communications

If you choose to receive marketing or promotional communications from us, you may unsubscribe from those communications by following the unsubscribe instructions provided or by contacting us.

Transactional or service-related communications may still be sent when necessary to provide a requested service.

12. External Links

Our website may contain links to third-party websites, platforms, or resources. We are not responsible for the privacy practices, content, or security of third-party websites. We encourage you to review the privacy policies of those services before providing information.

13. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time as our services, technology, or legal requirements change. When we make changes, we will update the Effective Date at the top of this policy. Your continued use of the website or services after an updated policy is posted means you acknowledge the updated policy.

14. Contact Us

If you have questions about this Privacy Policy or how we handle information, please contact M.E.G.A. X Triumph Collective through the contact information provided on our website.

Important: This Privacy Policy is a general business template and is not legal advice. Because M.E.G.A. X Triumph Collective may serve K–12 students and handle information involving minors, consider having an attorney review this policy for the jurisdictions where you operate and the specific services and third-party platforms you use.
