

You are going to hear a radio programme. Listen to the first part of the programme. According to Inspector Peters, what is "cyber crime"?

Cyber crime...

Now listen to the whole programme and decide if the following sentences are true or false.

Then correct the false sentences.

- According to Inspector Peters, most teenagers use the Internet for cyber bullying. T / F
- Sending someone a threatening text message is an example of cyber bullying. T / F
- Cyber bullies are never punished. T / F
- Inspector Peters believes people shouldn't take cyber bullying seriously. T / F
- Many schools are trying to deal with the problem of cyber bullying. T / F

Listen to the whole programme again and complete the sentences below.

- I used to be involved with a special _____ of the police that investigates cyber crime.
- Bullies put their victim's photos on the Internet without their _____.
- Do you have any _____ for someone who is being cyber bullied?
- Teenagers can get more advice at _____ like www.cyberbullying.co.uk.

Which of the following do you think it is used to help prevent cyber crime?

- firewall
- phishing
- spyware

Complete these definitions with the correct word:

- _____ means sending out e-mails from false financial institutions to try to obtain confidential details.
- _____ is a program that steals people's personal information.
- A _____ is a program that protects a computer against cybercrime "attacks".

