

Check out this list of artists who use unique art supplies or different approaches to making their art! Maybe you will be inspired to explore or invent your own approach to artmaking!

Anastasia Elias creates these little sculptures from toilet paper rolls!

Herb Williams makes sculptures out of crayons!

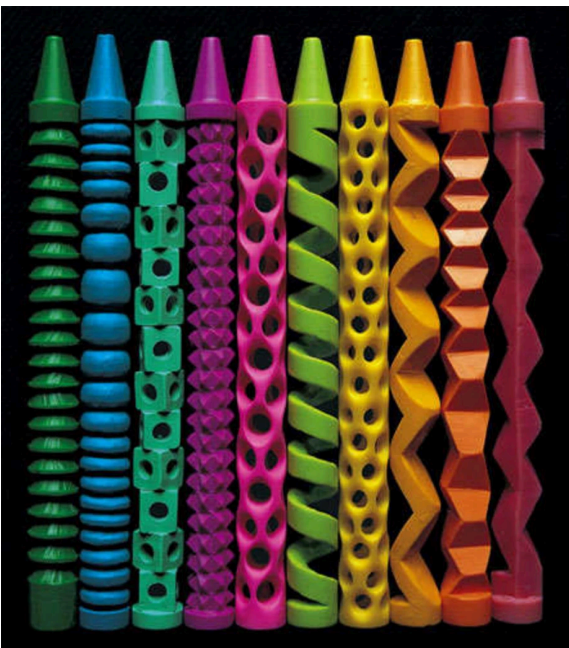

Tom Deslongchamp uses dried out markers to create his portraits!

James Campbell gets most of his “art” supplies from the hardware store.

While Mary Karlton uses acrylic paint on paper, the tools that she uses in the painting process are unique. She uses things like old credit cards and kitchen utensils to create her abstract paintings!

Peter Goldlust carved these sculptures from crayons!

Jacqueline Lou Skaggs creates these tiny paintings on pennies!

Nikolai Tolsty creates paper cut outs of creates and brings them to life using nature!