

Opinion Essay Instructions

Your essay should respond to this prompt:

Choose someone whom you believe is the best at what they do.

State your opinion and tell why you believe they are the best.

The person you write about and what they do will be your topic.

How you feel about the person's ability and why you feel that way will be your opinion.

You can write about someone you know, such as a teacher, a family member, or a coach.

You can also write about someone you have seen or learned about, such as a sports figure, an inventor or scientist, or an artist or musician.
