

Events for Doctoral Students

The following events are external ones which are NOT organized by HU-Docs. HU-Docs only collects them and is not responsible for the validity of the information.

● Humboldt Graduate School

(<https://www.humboldt-graduate-school.de/en/homepage-collage-en>)

Target Groups / Costs

- Workshops that are announced as "Open to all..." are FREE OF CHARGE for doctoral candidates and postdocs of Humboldt-Universität and/or the Berlin University Alliance. Please check the specifications and target group designation below each workshop title.
- Costs for Workshops advertised as "Open to Doctoral Candidates from Member Programs, Associated Programs and Cooperations" must be covered by the institution of which you are a member.

It is possible to sign up for a workshop even if it is fully booked. We will put you on our WAITING LIST and inform you as soon as a place becomes available.

If you do not belong to a structured program or a cooperating institution (<https://t1p.de/iqd7>), you can also apply to participate in a chargeable workshop in our LAST MINUTE procedure! Workshops that are not fully booked 14 days before they begin, can then be attended FREE OF CHARGE. This option is also open to all doctoral candidates within the Berlin University Alliance.

Registration

For your registration, please follow the LINK included in the workshop headlines. Please note that the registration for workshops opens 4 weeks in advance. To see all of our workshops in 2022, please check our calendar.

Cancellation Policy

Please note that this registration is binding, this means participation may be cancelled up to 14 days in advance without any reason given. If the participation is cancelled after that, the doctoral candidate's member program or the doctoral candidate him-/herself has to cover incurring costs. Last minute cancellations due to illness are only acceptable with a medical certificate. We ask you to be fair and cancel early to give people on the waiting list the chance to participate. If you do not attend the workshop without notifying the Humboldt Graduate School, you will be excluded from further workshops.

Should you have further questions, do not hesitate to contact us:

hgs-workshops@hu-berlin.de

We're looking forward to your participation!

Peer Mentoring – Karriereentwicklung (Kurssprache: Deutsch)

Peer Mentoring richtet sich an Promovierende und Postdocs, die noch kein klares Karriereziel haben und sich fragen, wie es nach der Promotion beruflich weitergehen kann. Soll ich in der Wissenschaft bleiben oder eine außeruniversitäre Karriere anstreben? Welche beruflichen Möglichkeiten gibt es für mich außerhalb von Universitäten? Wie kann der Umstieg von der Hochschule in den außeruniversitären Arbeitsmarkt gelingen? Das Ziel des Peer Mentoring Programmes ist, diesen Erkundungs- und Entscheidungsprozess zu unterstützen. In einer Gruppe von Personen, die in einer ähnlichen Situation sind, ist es einerseits leichter, die eigenen Stärken und Ziele klarer herauszuarbeiten. Andererseits verfügt eine Gruppe über einen größeren Erfahrungsschatz und mehr Kontakte in den Arbeitsmarkt. Das Programm umfasst zwei Termine in der Gruppe, die beide von Dr. Cornelia Rahn geleitet werden. In der Zwischenzeit kann an der eigenen Karriereentwicklung gearbeitet werden und wir bieten eine individuelle Beratung an.

Die nächste Gruppe startet im Herbst und findet an diesen beiden Terminen statt:

Mittwoch, den 12. Oktober 2022 von 10 bis 13.15 Uhr

Mittwoch, den 16. November 2022 von 10 bis 13.15 Uhr

Anmeldungen: hgs-mentoring@hu-berlin.de

Kosten: Für Promovierende und PostDocs der Humboldt-Universität ist dieses Angebot kostenfrei.

Ort: Humboldt Graduate School

Peer Mentoring – Career Development (language: English)

Peer mentoring is aimed at doctoral candidates and postdocs who do not yet have a clear career goal and are wondering how to continue professionally after their doctorate. Should I stay in academia or pursue a career outside academia? What career opportunities are there for me outside of universities? How can the transition from academia to the non-university job market succeed? The goal of the Peer Mentoring Program is to support this exploration and decision-making process. On the one hand, in a group of people who are in a similar situation, it is easier to work out one's own strengths and goals more clearly. On the other hand, a group has a greater pool of experience and more contacts in the labour market. The program includes two group appointments, both of which are led by Dr. Cornelia Rahn. In the meantime, you can work on your own career development and we offer individual counselling.

The next group starts in autumn and takes place on these two dates:

Wednesday, 19 October 2022, 10 a.m. to 1.15 p.m.

Wednesday, 23 November 2022, 10 a.m. to 1.15 p.m.

Costs: Free of charge for doctoral candidates and post docs of Humboldt University

Registration: hgs-mentoring@hu-berlin.de

Venue: Humboldt Graduate School

Individual Career Counselling (language: English or German)

Individual counselling is supposed to be a first step towards forming your own post-doctoral career. In a one-hour meeting, you can discuss your own goals, wishes and options with a counsellor. You will get answers to some of your questions and learn where to find more information. Additionally, you will further develop your ideas and will also discuss which other offers could be helpful for you individually.

Next Dates: Friday 23 September, Wednesday 19 October, Wednesday 9 November, Monday 5 December 2022

Venue: Luisenstr. 56 or online

Target Group: Doctoral candidates and post-docs of Humboldt University

Costs: Free of charge for doctoral candidates and post-docs of Humboldt University

To register for an individual counselling session, please send an email to: hgs-career@hu-berlin.de

Collaborative Futures Academy

Are you ready to reimagine engagement with research and society? Do you want to join a diverse international group to get hands-on with equity and ethics in engagement?

Then our next Collaborative Futures Academy on Equity and Ethics in Public Engagement is for you. Join us in November 2022.

To create a strong dialogue between research and society, engagement needs to be relevant, inclusive and adapt to different challenges. Across disciplines, researchers and practitioners are thinking about new and more ethical ways of collaborating with the public. This immersive learning experience is an opportunity to reflect on your engagement practice and its place in the world. We will explore the ethics of different types of engagement, methods of co-creation and authentic strategies for including those who are often left out.

The Academy will empower you to develop a bold, creative and innovative engagement practice with integrity and equity at its heart.

Apply by 19 September to be part of the Collaborative Futures Academy 2022!

Check out our website for more information: www.publicengagement.berlin/cfa2022

City Tour Friedrichshain-Kreuzberg September 2022 tba

Walk with us through the colourful and vibrant Friedrichshain-Kreuzberg and discover different Kieze of Berlin.

Intercultural training October 11 2022 02:00-05:00

Young people in seminar

led by Pamela Stenzel: Certified intercultural trainer and international business consultant

Culture-specific influences are relevant in the university context and affect the way actors interact with each other. Different academic styles can lead to misunderstandings, but also offer an opportunity to broaden one's own horizons and learn about new perspectives. The workshop is thus an invitation to leave one's own cultural comfort zone and to engage with less familiar ways of behaving.

Welcome Reception for newly arrived international researchers and their supervisors October/November 2022 Tba

Stasigefängnis Hohenschönhausen November 2022 tba

Together we will visit the memorial site Berlin-Hohenschönhausen, where the former prison of the state security of the GDR is located.

Participation fee: 3 € p.p.

Humboldt Forum: Berlin Global December 2022 tba

Visit with us the the newly opened Humboldt Forum, which is already worth a visit in itself! The exhibition Berlin Global shows a new perspective on the modern Berlin, with all its global entanglements but also its historical influences. Participation fee: 3 € p.p

Advent get-together December 2022 tba

It is that time of the year again. So let's get cozy over a warm cup of tea, coffee or mulled wine. Bring traditional snacks and enjoy the end of the year with us.

● Berlin University Alliance Events

As an admitted doctoral candidate at HU Berlin, you have the opportunity to attend courses at our partner universities (Freie Universität, Technische Universität and Charité - Universitätsmedizin Berlin) as part of Berlin University Alliance's Graduate Studies Support Programme. You can find out more about the offers on the following pages:

Daten:

Freitag, 14. Oktober: Auftakt-Workshop, 9.00-12.30 Uhr

Freitag, 21. Oktober: Peer-Learning-Session, 1,5 Stunden (Zeit wird noch festgelegt)

Freitag, 28. Oktober: Abschluss-Workshop, 10.00-12.00 Uhr

Format: Online via Zoom

Sprache: Deutsch

Sie möchten Ihre Fähigkeiten in den Bereichen Wissenschaftskommunikation und Public Engagement verbessern? Dann nehmen Sie an diesem kostenlosen Coaching teil, das von der Berlin University Alliance und der Berlin School of Public Engagement and Open Science veranstaltet wird! Lernen Sie absolute Expertinnen auf diesem Gebiet kennen und erfahren Sie, wie Sie Ihre Forschung an Publika außerhalb der akademischen Welt vermitteln können.

Durch die Teilnahme am Coaching werden die Teilnehmenden:

- Kapazitäten und Fähigkeiten entwickeln, um Aktivitäten im Bereich Public Engagement zu gestalten und durchzuführen
- einen persönlichen Engagement-Plan für ihre spezifische Forschung und ihre Prioritäten formulieren, der dann umgesetzt werden kann
- Selbstvertrauen aufbauen, neue Wege des Engagements auszuprobieren
- in der Lage sein, ihre Forschung einem nicht-fachkundigen Publikum auf ansprechende und schnelle Weise zu präsentieren
- andere Nachwuchswissenschaftler:innen treffen, um voneinander zu lernen und sich auszutauschen

Bring your research to life: Public Engagement & Science Communication Coaching

Free coaching for all doctoral candidates of the Berlin University Alliance

Dates:

Friday 14 October: Kick-off session, 13.00-16.30

Friday 21 October: Group-learning session, 1.5 hour TBC

Friday 28 October: Final session, 14.00-16.00

Format: Online via Zoom

Language: English

This intensive coaching masterclass will explore the diverse field of Public Engagement, from Science Communication to research participation. Early career researchers will be equipped with techniques to develop and deliver meaningful engagement that results in positive impacts and benefits for all participants. The coaching aims to enable researchers to make public engagement an active part of their work and to feel empowered in communicating the relevance of their research to their audiences.

By completing the coaching, participants will:

- Develop their capacity and confidence to design and deliver public engagement activities
- Formulate a personal engagement plan for their specific research and priorities, which can then be implemented
- Feel confident in trying out new avenues of engagement
- Be able to present their research to non-specialist audiences in an engaging and quick way
- Meet other early career researchers for mutual learning and exchange

Collaborative Futures Academy 2022: Ethics and Equity in Engagement

Annual training Academy organized by the Berlin School of Public Engagement and Open Science

What: An international, interdisciplinary Academy focused on ethics and equity in public engagement with research

When: Weekly sessions across November 2022, with core sessions every Wednesday from 11.00-14.00 GMT. See below for the planned schedule.

Format: A mix of expert-led masterclasses, group learning, practical workshops and individual reflection, delivered online.

For whom: International early career researchers and engagement practitioners who want to deepen their engagement practice.

As in previous years, we expect this opportunity to be oversubscribed and preference will be given to participants in global majority countries or those with fewer opportunities to develop their work. In our experience, it is the alchemy of international backgrounds, disciplines and research cultures that make CFA such a vibrant experience.

Costs: free of charge to participants - but note the commitment section on website.

Themes: The programme is built around 4 thematic blocks and a closing week, covering:

- Connecting to your purpose: exploring goals and values in public engagement
- The ethics of who we involve
- Responsible collaboration and co-production
- Strategically imagining the future - together and individually
- Celebration and reflection

Deadline for applications is Monday 19 September 2022.

If you have any questions about the programme or application, please visit the website and/or contact BerlinSchool@mfn.berlin

The Climate Change Challenge and Innovative Approaches. From Batteries to Agriculture – Towards a More Sustainable Future

Guest lecture: Steven Chu on combatting climate change

Date: 21 September, 10am

Location: Senatssaal in Humboldt-Universität's main building (Unter den Linden 6, 10117 Berlin).

Steven Chu's current research focuses on physics problems relevant to environmental and climate questions. For example, he is researching methods for hydrogen production and the advancement of batteries. As a former U.S. Secretary of Energy in Barack Obama's cabinet, he also brings an insider's perspective on climate policy challenges and opportunities.

To register for this guest lecture, followed by coffee and socialising, simply send an email to international-department@hu-berlin.de.

- Info Talks on DFG Funding Opportunities for Research Careers

https://www.dfg.de/en/research_funding/research_careers/info_talks/

The DFG regularly offers info talks on its funding instruments for early career researchers.

Prospects: Online Talk Series on DFG Funding Opportunities for Research Careers

Germany's largest independent research funding organisation offers funding opportunities for all career stages between doctorate and professorship. Join our online talk and get to know the DFG and its funding portfolio for postdocs.

We offer an overview of all funding instruments for the time after your PhD as well as specific focus talks on the Walter Benjamin Programme, the Emmy Noether Programme and the Heisenberg Programme. We will also provide advice on how to prepare your proposal for the review process and answer your questions. PhD candidates and postdocs of all disciplines are welcome to join!

Upcoming talks in the Prospects Series:

14/09/2022 – Emmy Noether Programme (in English)

12/10/2022 – DFG Funding Opportunities for Scientific Careers (in German)

Please check this website and our twitter account for updates on the individual talks.

Helmholtz Visiting Researcher Grant

Are you a doctoral researcher or postdoc and your research has a strong link to the (applied) data and information sciences? The Helmholtz Visiting Researcher Grant offers doctoral students and Postdocs the opportunity to do a fully-funded short-term research stay (1 – 3 months) at one of the 18 Helmholtz centers. With more than 43,000 employees and an annual budget of 5 billion euros, Helmholtz is Germany's largest scientific organization. Its research fields include: Energy; Earth and Environment; Health; Aeronautics, Space and Transport; Matter, and Information.

The Helmholtz Visiting Researcher Grant is promoted by HiDA, the Helmholtz Information and Data Science Academy. Its aim is to enable new research collaborations, to foster knowledge exchange, and to explore new or emerging research topics in the field of information and data sciences. The program addresses researchers in both academia and in industry. It offers researchers the opportunity to get to know the Helmholtz Association of German Research Centers.

Next Application Deadline: 15 October, 2022

For more information:

<https://www.helmholtz-hida.de/en/new-horizons/helmholtz-visiting-researcher-grant/>

Save the Date: Information session (via Zoom) on HiDA funding opportunities on 7 July, 2022, 14.30-15.30pm.
