

Once you are logged into Google, you can build Custom Search Engines (CSE) that are then associated with your account: you will always be able to access, update and utilize these CSE as long as you are logged in. Also, once the CSE is created, you can share it with anyone in the world who wants to search using your given parameters.

Click Here For my Custom EdTech Blog Search

5 Simple Steps to Creating your own custom google search engine:

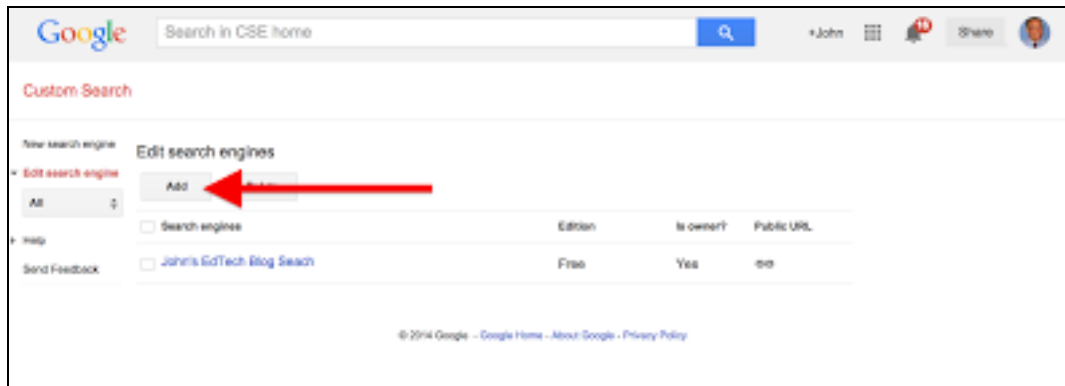

1. Click on the 9 boxes & Click Even More or try <https://cse.google.com>

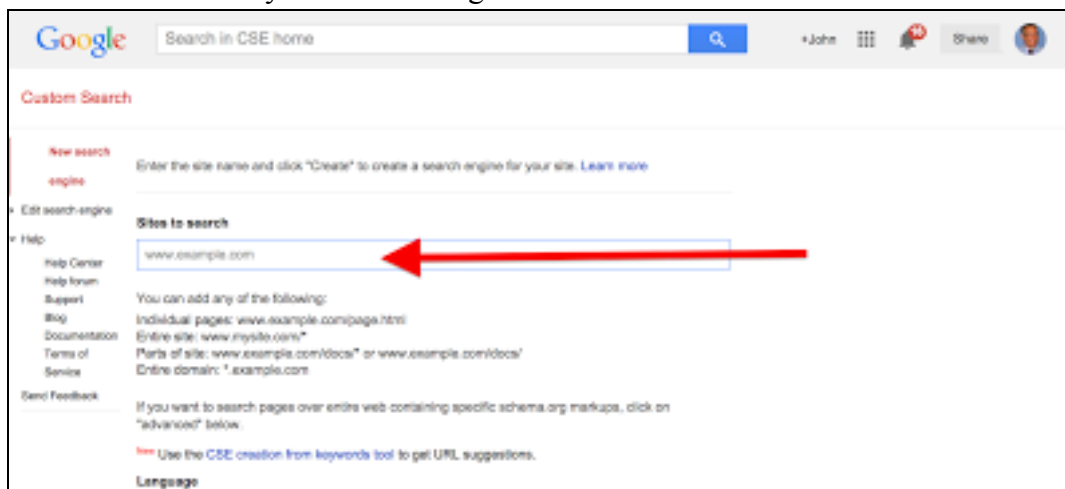

2. Select Custom search

3. Add a new custom search engine

4. Add the sites that you want the engine to search

5. Name your engine and hit create

