6:30 AM: Task 💃	Physical workout

Reflection /	Completed my morning run first thing in the morning after waking up.

7:30 AM: Task 💃	Morning Checklist

8 AM: Task 辈	Social Media (business account) work
Strategy Q	<ul> <li>Create today's content to post it to Instagram.</li> <li>Motivational, something I learned this week.</li> <li>Search for trends and use them for inspiration.</li> <li>Comment on 10 other accounts.</li> </ul>
Reflection /	Completed my social media work. It took me a little more time than I thought because I wasn't active enough. I see that If I need to comment on accounts that I would potentially want as a client from the same niche I am targeting that will help definitely. Also My posts need to become more "target market focused" instead of sharing my own personal ideas and lessons.

9 AM: Task 辈	Client Project G-work 1
Strategy 🔍	<ul> <li>Mini Objective #1: Post Content on all platforms</li> <li>Post 3 Instagram Stories (previous image posts)</li> <li>Make 1 post to pinterest (make sure to use AI).</li> <li>Make 1 short post to the Youtube account.</li> </ul>
Reflection /	Took care of all of the content posting for my client in the early morning. This way I'm able to gather feedback quicker, and organize my time better.

2 PM: Task 🏅 💢	Client Project G-work 2
Strategy 🔍	<ul> <li>Mini Objective #2: Testing &amp; Reviewing ideas</li> <li>Have a call with my client to go over posting as he said he wanted to test and show me something for posting and discuss the current process.</li> <li>Review the most recent results and compare them to last week's results.</li> <li>Talk to my client about what I noticed for high views posts on his account and lay out the pattern.</li> </ul>
t	Today my client was busy so we didn't manage to hop on a call together to go over the next post so we'll find another time tomorrow. I did review the results and thus far they've been gradually increasing slightly. Although they aren't OVER performing, they are doing better and better.

Strategy Q
Defication /	<ul> <li>Get a list of to-dos ready for work related tasks.</li> <li>Have a schedule filled out for the 4 days I am traveling for (google calendar screenshot).</li> <li>Do the math on when I'll be working and when I'll be sleeping.</li> </ul>
and one wa	lade a whole schedule of my flight and how I'll divide work time with sleep time nd also once I'm landed and onboard. I will board in the evening and then sleep nce I'm aboard and for the remainder of the flight do the work I have planned, I'll vant to take a bunch of screenshots of analytics and update them once I find wifi in hanghai.

🌟 What wins did I achieve today? 🌟

What lessons did I learn today?

I learned how to be in a peak state physically and mentally. I learned the importance of praising others that deserve it in order to throw around positivity and increase my chances of getting the ball back in a way.

🚧 What roadblocks did I face? 🚧

I didn't face any roadblocks I couldn't overcome although I didn't get to have a call with my client and discuss what we had planned and post for today on IG.

Tomorrow I want to follow-up on my client and make sure that we get a new post up and running, and also create a new post from the old content on the cloud. Also improve my flight plan for tuesday to make sure I get a few things done on time during my flight and in between landing and boarding.
➡ What worked well and will be repeated? ➡
Morning execution on tasks. Preparation for my flight Tuesday.
⊠ Who are the People I need to connect with?⊠
My friend Hadrien. My friend Ryan.
My contacts in TRW.
📌 What tasks remain uncompleted 📌
Hop on a call with my client and create a new post, as well as talk about the pattern I found.
♠ What changes do I need to make to my CONQUEST PLAN? ♠
None.

Freestyle Thoughts:

(Let your thoughts flow here. No judgment, no boundaries.)

Today was a long day. I did many things but didn't end up doing enough work since I hit a roadblock by not being able to call with my client but nothing too bad.
